Media Information

As the Phoenix Suns welcome the beginning of their 50th NBA season, the 2017-18 campaign is sure to provide many exciting moments. Entering the club's 26th season of basketball action at Talking Stick Resort Arena, the venue remains one of the most accessible in the league. In an effort to continue the Suns tradition of providing the best professional working environment, please note the following guidelines.

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and single-game credential holders should enter through the northeast entrance off 3rd Street and Jefferson. Media will call opens two and one-half hours prior to the game. All credentials are non-transferable, and any unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from Talking Stick Resort Arena and confiscation of the pass. A photo identification will be required to pick up your credential.

Individual game credentials should be requested through the Suns' Basketball Communications department (phone: (602) 379-7960 or email: dcheadley@suns.com) a minimum of 36 hours prior to game time or by noon Friday for all Saturday, Sunday and Monday contests. Passes will not be issued on game day. Only requests confirmed via phone or e-mail by the Basketball Communications department will be honored.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media room and both locker rooms. Both the Suns and visiting locker rooms will be open 75 minutes before tip-off until 45 minutes before the game and then again 15 minutes after the game. Coach Watson's post-game press conference starts approximately 10 minutes after the game in the Pacific Room. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. Absolutely NO autographs allowed during media access periods.

Photo credentials should be requested a minimum of 72 hours in advance of the requested game and are now subject to approval by the NBA league office. It is club and NBA policy NOT to allow freelance photographers access. No ENG cameras except live television cameras, NBAE cameras, in-arena cameras and the team videographer will be permitted on the baselines. ALL photographers that are permitted floor access must have a black vest to wear while on the floor. The vests can be obtained in the media workroom.

Several communal telephones will be provided, but if you should need a designated phone for your own use, it should be ordered through Kevin Pires at Talking Stick Resort Arena (602) 379-2094. The Suns provide wireless service both courtside and in the working press room with hard lines also available. A password to access the wireless service should be obtained from our game night staff in the working press room.

It is our sincere hope that this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the National Basketball Association at Talking Stick Resort Arena. Please call the Basketball Communications department if you need additional assistance.

Robert Sarver

Managing Partner

Robert Sarver is the managing partner of Arizona's original sports franchise. In addition, the Arizona native and Valley resident is a successful businessman and a committed philanthropist, husband and father with a lifelong passion for basketball, the Suns, the state of Arizona, and—above all—winning.

THE OWNER

As an 8-year-old boy, Robert Sarver attended his first Phoenix Suns basketball game after receiving tickets as a birthday gift from Donald Diamond, one of the franchise's original owners. Thirty-five years later in 2004, Sarver became the majority owner of one of the NBA's model franchises, assembling a group of investors that purchased the Suns, the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury, and the operating rights to US Airways Center, since renamed Talking Stick Resort Arena. In 2016, the Suns purchased their NBA G League affiliate and relocated the team to Prescott Valley to operate as the Northern Arizona Suns.

In 13 years under Sarver's leadership, the Suns have enjoyed great success on the court. His tenure includes three appearances in the Western Conference Finals and two of the three 60-win seasons in the franchise's 49-year history. Phoenix owns the 11th-best record in the NBA since the start of the 2004-05 season (564-486, .537).

Sarver's passion for winning extends beyond the men's game. His commitment to the WNBA in Phoenix has resulted in the Mercury winning three league championships, in 2007, 2009 and 2014, with the team winning a WNBA-record 29 games in the 2014 regular season. Regular contenders for the title, the Mercury have made nine appearances in the league semifinals in the past 11 seasons. Over the last 13 seasons through 2017, the Mercury's record of 239-203 ranks it fifth in the WNBA in wins.

Guided by his stated mission, the Suns and Mercury organizations are industry leaders in business innovation and community outreach and involvement. Sarver is a member of the NBA's Board of Governors, Advisory Finance Committee, and Audit and Compensation Committee.

In addition to his commitments in basketball, Sarver owns a controlling share of RCD Mallorca, a Spanish soccer club.

THE BUSINESSMAN

Sarver is the Chairman and CEO of Western Alliance Bancorporation (NYSE: WAL), one of the country's top-performing banking companies and ranked No. 4 on the Forbes 2017 "Best Banks in America" list. Alliance Bank of Arizona, a division of Western Alliance Bank, is the largest locally-headquartered bank in Arizona and is ranked No. 4 in deposits in the state. The bank continues to be one of the most active business lenders in Arizona and, in 2017, Sarver was voted Banking CEO of the Year by International Banker magazine, a noted resource for analysis on global banking. Sarver is also the co-founder of Southwest Value Partners, a 26-year-old real estate investment fund.

On January 1, 2017, Sarver began his first one-year term representing the 12th District on the Federal Advisory Council, meeting multiple times a year with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in Washington, D.C., to discuss economic and banking matters. Members of the FAC customarily serve three one-year terms.

THE PHILANTHROPIST

Sarver's philanthropic efforts focus not simply on worthy causes but also giving back to Arizona and its local communities, both through Phoenix Suns Charities and his and his wife's own personal contributions. In 2016, Sarver was presented with the Greater Phoenix Economic Council Distinguished Service Award for his economic and philanthropic leadership and contributions to the Phoenix area.

Under Sarver's leadership, Phoenix Suns Charities has granted more than $19 million to Arizona non-profits. Phoenix Suns Charities focuses on enhancing the lives of Arizona children and families in need, specifically in the areas of education, healthcare and sports. Most notably, Sarver has spearheaded a successful program called "SunsCentral," through which the team's 'adoption' of a Phoenix high school has dramatically increased the graduation rate of the neighborhood school.

Among his proudest accomplishments, Sarver helped to build the Sarver Heart Center at the University of Arizona in memory of his late father, who was among the first to undergo heart bypass surgery. The center is composed of more than 150 physicians and scientists and aims to prevent and cure cardiovascular diseases through the three pillars of research, education and patient care. Pioneering doctors at the center have spearheaded the development of the SynCardia temporary Total Artificial Heart, an award-winning project that became the world's first and only total artificial heart to win FDA approval as a bridge to human heart transplant in patients near death from heart failure.

Doctors and researchers at the center also developed a hands-only CPR method called Continuous Chest Compression CPR that more than doubles a person's chance of surviving cardiac arrest. This method was adopted by the American Heart Association and is now internationally recognized. In addition to a focus on resuscitation science, the center focuses on stroke research, heart disease in women, sudden cardiac death, minority-specific cardiovascular problems, and electrophysiology.

The Sarvers were also instrumental in helping to build the Children's Museum of Phoenix, located in downtown Phoenix. A $1 million donation from the Penny and Robert Sarver Charitable Foundation aided in the completion of the 70,000-square-foot facility.

Sarver is on the board of directors for the Weil Foundation, established by Dr. Andrew Weil, an internationally recognized leader in integrative medicine.

THE PERSON

Sarver is a 1979 graduate of Sabino High School in Tucson and a 1982 graduate of the University of Arizona. Sarver earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and became a certified public accountant in 1983.

Sarver and wife, Penny, have three sons, Max, Jake and Zach. On their first date, Robert invited Penny to watch the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament at his house. Sarver enjoys watching basketball and soccer at all levels alongside his family.

From his early days in the Banana Republic to his education at Fur-man University, The Gorilla has always had a passion for basketball. Suns Broadcasting

Al McCoy

Arizona Sports Radio Play-by-Play

Al McCoy has been called the dean of NBA play-by-play announcers and is in his 46th memorable season as "The Voice of the Suns," nearly the length of the franchise's existence. At halftime of the game on March 3, 2017, McCoy earned the team's highest honor as he became the 15th person inducted into the Phoenix Suns Ring of Honor.

McCoy first hit the air during a preseason game on September 27, 1972, and has been synonymous with Suns basketball ever since. From "Shazam" to "Zing Go the Strings" to "Heartbreak Hotel," McCoy has cultivated an unparalleled style.

McCoy will forever be remembered for his call in the 1976 Suns-Celtics NBA Finals at Boston Garden when he had to fling an inebriated fan off his lap as he was describing "The Shot Heard 'Round The World" by Garfield Heard that sent the game into the third of three overtimes.

The 2017-18 season marks his 46th as he calls play-by-play action on Arizona Sports Radio and the Suns radio network. McCoy's tenure with the Suns is the longest consecutive run with one team among NBA broadcasters in league history. His many contributions to the sport were recognized when he received the 18th Annual Curt Gowdy Media Award from the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame during Enshrinement Weekend in September 2007 in Springfield, Mass. The Suns honored him with the Al McCoy Media Center, dedicated in October 2007.

In 2017, the readers of Phoenix Magazine named McCoy the best play-by-play announcer in their annual "Best of the Valley" issue for the 19th consecutive year. He's the only broadcaster to win the award since it debuted in 1999. McCoy was honored with a Silver Circle Award from the Arizona chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences and a Lifetime Achievement Award from the House of Broadcasting (a radio and television museum). He also became the first play-by-play announcer to be inducted into the Arizona Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame on Oct. 19, 2004.

McCoy's broadcasting career began in 1951 at KJFJ Radio in Webster City, Iowa when he was a freshman at Drake University. In 1958, he arrived in Arizona to do play-by-play for the Triple-A Phoenix Giants baseball club. He has also covered Phoenix Roadrunners hockey, Arizona State football and basketball and filled in as a backup for the Arizona Diamondbacks. McCoy added a call of the Phoenix Mercury to his distinguished resume, providing play-by-play on NBA TV for a playoff game on the Mercury's run to the 2014 WNBA title.

A native of Williams, Iowa, a tiny farming community, McCoy was a member of his high school basketball team and was influenced by legendary broadcasters Harry Caray, Bert Wilson and Jack Brickhouse. He received his degree in drama-speech from Drake University and performed graduate work at the University of Iowa. In 1994, McCoy received Drake's Alumni Achievement Award and in 2015, he was included in an interactive exhibit at the Iowa Hall of Pride.

He and his beloved wife Georgia, a Valley artist who passed away in 2012, have three sons: Mike, and twins Jay and Jerry. A culinary critic, he is the club's expert on gourmet restaurants around the league. McCoy is an accomplished jazz pianist.

After signing with the club as the first unrestricted free agent in league history on July 8, 1988, he made three-straight All-Star appearances from 1989 to 1991. Chambers was a two-time All-NBA Second Team selection (1989, 1990) and he poured in an all-time franchise-record 2,201 points (27.2 average) during the 1989-90 campaign. On March 24, 1990, Chambers erupted for a then franchise-record 60 points in a win against Seattle, a mark that stood for 27 years.

In his 15-year career, Chambers made four All-Star appearances, and was named the MVP of the mid-season classic in 1987. Sports are Moreno's passion and he enjoys free time with his family, traveling and learning about cultural arts.

Ryan McDonough

General Manager

Considered one of the game's brightest minds, Ryan McDonough is in his fifth season as the Phoenix Suns' general manager. Throughout his career, McDonough has combined his tireless work ethic with an expertise in player evaluation that he has honed at several levels of basketball operations with the Suns and Boston Celtics, two of the NBA's most historic franchises.

Under the 36-year-old's direction, the Suns are poised for the future with a collection of talented young players, several experienced veterans and a haul of upcoming draft picks made more valuable with McDonough's successful track record in the NBA Draft.

McDonough has overseen the Suns assemble some of the game's brightest young stars with five first-round picks made in his tenure currently on the roster. Included in this group are Devin Booker, who became just the sixth player to ever score at least 70 points in a game and has totaled the fourth-most points in NBA history before turning 21 years old, Josh Jackson, the fourth overall pick in 2017 named All-NBA Summer League First Team while making his professional debut in Las Vegas this past summer, and T.J. Warren, one of the league's most efficient scoring wings. The team's 2016 draft haul has already shown its promise with the versatile Marquese Chriss earning NBA All-Rookie Second Team honors and floor general Tyler Ulis winning Western Conference Rookie of the Month for April, while Dragan Bender has flashed the all-around skill that made him the fourth overall selection. In upcoming drafts, the Suns own all of their own picks, as well as two first-rounders from Miami in 2018 (top-7 protected) and 2021.

In addition to his success on draft night, McDonough has orchestrated the acquisitions of one of basketball's top point guards in Eric Bledsoe, as well as veteran leaders Tyson Chandler, one of the league's best rebounders, and Jared Dudley, one of the league's most consistent three-point shooters.

Initially named general manager of the Suns on May 7, 2013, a year to that date later, McDonough was named runner-up for NBA Executive of the Year, an award voted on by his peers. Following a series of trades and acquisitions that included the addition of Bledsoe, Phoenix made the NBA's biggest turnaround in 2013-14, improving from 25 wins to 48. In his second and third seasons as general manager, the Suns won 39 and 23 games, respectively, as the team promoted Watson to interim head coach on Jan. 30, 2016, before removing the interim label on April 19 of that year. In McDonough's fourth season, 2016-17, the Suns posted a 24-58 record.

McDonough joined the Suns after serving for three seasons as the assistant general manager of the Boston Celtics, where he assisted Celtics President of Basketball Operations Danny Ainge on all basketball-related matters, while being principally responsible for the draft evaluation of college and international players. He combines the experience of nearly a decade of in-person scouting of prospects across the globe with an understanding of advanced metrics and statistical analysis. During his tenure with the Celtics, Boston made two appearances in the NBA Finals and orchestrated the biggest season-to-season turnaround in NBA history after the acquisitions of future Hall of Famers Ray Allen and Kevin Garnett, improving from 24 wins in 2006-07 to 66 wins and an NBA championship in 2007-08.

McDonough joined the Celtics front office in 2003 as a 23-year-old special assistant to basketball operations, rapidly moving up the team's ranks with increased responsibility at each stop, always with an emphasis in talent evaluation. He spent four seasons as a special assistant, a role that included a great deal of video scouting work (2003-06), one season as director of amateur scouting (2006-07), one season as director of international scouting (2007-08), and two seasons as director of player personnel (2008-10) before his promotion to assistant general manager in Sept. 2010.

McDonough played a prominent role in the front office of a club that kept a veteran-led roster in the playoffs in each of his final six seasons with the Celtics thanks to an infusion of young talent acquired through quality late first-round draft picks and trades. Included in that list are the draft-day acquisition of four-time All-Star Rajon Rondo in 2006, and the 2004 selection of eventual All-NBA center Al Jefferson, who was the centerpiece of the Celtics' 2007 deal to acquire Garnett.

Additionally, McDonough is a member of the Jr. NBA Leadership Council, a group of influencers from across the basketball landscape who help provide direction on the program's development and evolution as part of the league's expanded youth basketball efforts.

A graduate of the University of North Carolina with a degree in Journalism and Mass Communication, McDonough spent one summer while at UNC calling games for the Class-AA Carolina Mudcats. He grew up in Hingham, Mass., the son of the late renowned Boston Globe columnist Will McDonough, and the brother of ABC/ESPN broadcaster and play-by-play voice of "Monday Night Football" Sean, and Arizona Cardinals vice president of player personnel Terry. In the summer of 2015, McDonough and the former Valerie Doseck married in Boston; the couple resides in Phoenix.

Basketball Operations

James Jones

Vice President, Basketball Operations

Following a 14-year NBA playing career, James Jones is in his first season as vice president of basketball operations with the Phoenix Suns, reporting to General Manager Ryan McDonough and working alongside him to oversee all basketball-related matters for the Suns, including the draft, free agency and trades. A three-time NBA Champion, Jones was one of the league's most respected players by his teammates and peers, serving as Secretary-Treasurer for the National Basketball Players Association prior to joining the Suns' front office.

Two of Jones' 14 NBA seasons were spent with the Suns and they were two of the most successful in franchise history as he was a member of the 2005-06 team that won 54 games and advanced to the Western Conference Finals, as well as the 2006-07 team that won 61 games and advanced to the Western Conference Semifinals. Earl Watson

Head Coach

As a freshman at UCLA, Earl Watson began regularly meeting with the most successful coach in college basketball history to discuss basketball, relationships and life. Starting with those inspiring conversations with John Wooden, Watson constantly put himself in a position to be mentored by some of the most illustrious names in basketball history along a path that saw him play 13 years in the NBA as a player. Following his playing career, Watson became an assistant coach before being named interim head coach on Feb. 1, 2016, then retained as the 17th head coach in Phoenix Suns franchise history on April 19, 2016.

Watson, the second-youngest head coach in the NBA at 38 years old, has compiled a 33-82 record in two seasons as head coach of the Suns, going 24-58 in 2016-17 after posting a 9-24 record over the final 33 games of 2015-16. In his first full season at the helm, the Suns boasted a well-rounded and productive offense, becoming the first team since the 57-win Denver Nuggets of 2012-13 to rank in the NBA's top five in all four miscellaneous scoring categories (points off turnovers, second chance points, fast break points, points in the paint). Prior to joining the Suns' staff as an assistant coach in the summer of 2015, Watson spent one season as an assistant coach for the Austin Spurs of the NBA Development League after his professional playing career came to an end following the 2013-14 season.

At the outset of Watson's career as an 18-year-old at UCLA in 1997, complementing his routine meetings with Wooden, the college freshman would often find himself playing pick-up basketball at Pauley Pavilion with the legendary Magic Johnson who schooled the young point guard in the ability to make his teammates better. A four-year starter for the Bruins, Watson displayed the leadership he would exude throughout his career as he guided the team to three Sweet 16 appearances in the NCAA tournament and remains the prestigious program's all-time leader in steals (235) and minutes played (4,371).

Following his success at UCLA, Watson was selected 40th overall in the 2001 NBA Draft by Seattle as his basketball education extended into his professional career. As a rookie, Hall of Fame point guard Gary Payton mentored Watson with the SuperSonics, before he played the next three seasons in Memphis. With the Grizzlies Watson played for coaching luminaries Hubie Brown, the NBA Coach of the Year in 2003-04, and Mike Fratello, while the team's general manager who signed and tutored Watson was the iconic Jerry West.

Watson's career continued in Denver under the fifth-winningest coach in NBA history George Karl before he returned to Seattle where he played for Bob Hill, P.J. Carlesimo and Scott Brooks as he moved with the team to Oklahoma City. With the SuperSonics in 2007-08, Watson averaged career-highs of 10.7 points and 6.8 assists, starting in 73 of his 78 appearances. Prior to the 2009-10 season, Watson signed with Indiana where the team's president of basketball operations and basketball legend Larry Bird encouraged his potential in coaching. Watson spent three seasons with Utah from 2010-13, playing for head coach Jerry Sloan in 2010-11 in the final season of the Hall of Famer and third-winningest coach in league history's career.

By the time Watson reached Portland in 2013-14, his career had come full circle: from rookie pupil to bench contributor to regular starter to veteran teacher to mentor. In his final professional season with the Trail Blazers, Watson was a coach in uniform helping the development of rising stars Damian Lillard and C.J. McCollum, playing the role of adviser that some of the most distinguished names and minds in basketball history had played with him. For his career, Watson played in 878 games over 13 seasons, averaging 6.4 points, 4.4 assists and 1.0 steals.

A native of Kansas City, Kansas, and 1997 graduate of Washington High School where he led the Wildcats to the their first league title since 1975, the former Kansas City Kansan Player of the Year is still very much revered in and committed to giving back to his hometown. The building that housed the elementary school Watson attended is now a preschool named the Earl Watson Jr. Early Childhood Center.

The first full-time NBA head coach of Mexican descent, in 2017, Watson received the Roberto Clemente Award for Sports Excellence presented by the National Council of La Raza, given to an individual renowned in the world of sports and committed to the advancement of Hispanic Americans. The National Association of Hispanic Real Estate Professionals also honored Watson as their 2017 recipient of the Latino Vanguard Award, recognizing artists, authors and public figures who have transcended barriers in their lives and careers and whose contributions have elevated the image and quality of life for Latinos in America.

HISTORY

Celebrating 50 Years of Suns Basketball ...

The Phoenix Suns have long been regarded as one of the most successful NBA franchises on and off the court. Since entering the league in 1968, the Suns own a .541 (2146-1824) winning percentage, the fourth-best mark all-time in the NBA (entering 2017-18). That record trails only the San Antonio Spurs (.624), Los Angeles Lakers (.598) and Boston Celtics (.589) and features appearances in the postseason in 29 of the team's 49 seasons, including nine trips to the Western Conference Finals. Phoenix has reached the NBA Finals twice (1976 and 1993). Having fielded some of the most entertaining teams in basketball history, the Suns enter their 50th season with a lifetime scoring average of 107.2 points per game, highest of any NBA franchise.

The Beginning Of A Franchise...

On January 22, 1968, the NBA Board of Governors awarded franchises to Phoenix and Milwaukee. The new team's leadership came from owners Richard Bloch of Los Angeles along with Donald Pitt and Donald Diamond of Tucson. They brought together a group of investors that included entertainers Henry Mancini, Tony Curtis, Ed Ames, Andy Williams and Bobby Gentry.

Jerry Colangelo, former Illinois basketball star and member of the Chicago Bulls' organization, was selected as the club's first general manager at age 28. One of Colangelo's first moves was naming Johnny "Red" Kerr as the franchise's first head coach. The name "Suns" was chosen through a contest (28,000 entries submitted). Since several entries were marked "Suns," a drawing was held and Selinda King of Phoenix was selected as the person who officially named the new franchise on April 25, 1968.

Dick Van Arsdale scores the first basket in Suns history on a feed from Dick Snyder as they defeated Seattle 116-107 in the first regular season game at the Coliseum.

In the May 6, 1968 Expansion Draft, forward Dick Van Arsdale, who was left unprotected by the New York Knicks, became "The Original Sun." Van Arsdale scored 12,060 points as a Sun, holding the franchise record for over 15 years.

The Suns played their first game October 18, 1968, and defeated Seattle, 116-107, before 7,112 fans at Veterans Memorial Coliseum. However, Phoenix finished its first season at 16-66 led by Gail Goodrich and Van Arsdale who became the team's first All-Stars. In a coin flip between the Eastern and Western Conference teams with the poorest records (Milwaukee and Phoenix), the Suns called "heads" as the coin came up "tails." Milwaukee claimed Lew Alcindor, later known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, and captured the NBA title two years later.

Success, however, came more quickly than skeptics first thought when the Suns won a second coin flip with Seattle and the rights to playground legend and ABA star Connie Hawkins.

The Suns made the playoffs in their second season, battling the L.A. Lakers to the seven-game limit in the conference semifinals. With the emergence of eventual four-time All-Star and NBA Hall of Famer Hawkins, and the club's impressive playoff performance, the Suns had arrived on the NBA map. On January 14, 1975, the Suns hosted the 25th NBA All-Star Game to further establish Phoenix as a basketball hotbed.

The Greatest Game Ever Played...

Things brightened when the 1975-76 club, headed by coach John MacLeod, Rookie of the Year Alvan Adams and Paul Westphal, parlayed a 42-40 record and wild card playoff berth into the Western Conference title and a trip to the NBA Finals against the then 12-time NBA Champion Boston Celtics. Game 5 of that series has been called "the greatest game ever played," as Garfield Heard hit "the shot heard 'round the world" to force a third overtime at the Boston Garden. Boston eventually won Game 5, 128-126, in three overtimes and would capture the title, 4-2, but the "Sunderella" Suns demonstrated that they had come a long way in just eight seasons.

The Suns continued the success with eight straight playoff appearances from 1978 through 1985 led by Adams and the 1976-77 Rookie of the Year Walter Davis, still the team's all-time leading scorer with 15,666 points as a Sun.

Phoenix Rising...

On October 14, 1987, Colangelo led a group of Phoenix-area investors that purchased the team for $44.5 million. He was then named president and chief executive officer.

A series of transactions led to one of the biggest turnarounds in NBA history: the Suns sent away Larry Nance but acquired Kevin Johnson, Mark West, Tyrone Corbin and a draft pick that would become Dan Majerle from Cleveland at the 1988 trade deadline and in July, the Suns made NBA history by signing the league's first unrestricted free agent, Tom Chambers. Cotton Fitzsimmons began his second stint as Suns head coach before the 1988-89 season and a revamped squad with just one holdover player from two seasons prior, Jeff Hornacek, finished 55-27, a 27-win improvement over the previous season for the "Cotton Express."

During 1988-89, Colangelo moved ahead with plans for a new downtown arena that the Suns could call home. In a unique partnership with the city of Phoenix, the $89 million America West Arena (now Talking Stick Resort Arena) was born. Construction of the arena began during the summer of 1990. The building later underwent a $70 million expansion and improvement project that was completed in 2004.

Danny Ainge and Michael Jordan faced off in the 1993 NBA Finals. Chicago defeated the Suns 4-2 in an exciting series.

The Return to the NBA Finals...

Celebrating their 25th year in the NBA, the Suns rocked the basketball world with a blockbuster trade. On June 17, 1992, the team acquired Charles Barkley from Philadelphia for Hornacek, Tim Perry, and Andrew Lang. On November 7, 1992, the Suns opened their new home arena and the 1992-93 club finished the season with a club-record and NBA-best 62-20 record as Barkley earned the Suns' first NBA MVP award.

The Suns made NBA playoff history by coming back to beat the Lakers in the opening round after losing the first two at home. They defeated San Antonio in six games, Seattle in seven, and returned to the Finals for the first time since 1976. After losing the first two at home to the defending champion Chicago Bulls, the Suns went to the Windy City and won two of three, including a 129-121 triple-overtime affair in Game 3, just the second triple-overtime game in Finals history with the Suns playing in each. Back in Phoenix, however, John Paxson gave the Bulls their third-straight NBA title after sinking a three-pointer with 3.9 seconds left in Game 6.

Led by Barkley, KJ and Majerle, and wearing the iconic streaking Sun uniforms, the team would continue to contend into the late 1990s and hosted the 45th NBA All-Star Game at the new arena in 1995.

A New Era of Basketball...

On June 30, 2004, Robert Sarver, a banking and real estate executive, purchased the club from Colangelo after Colangelo set into motion a plan to ensure the team's legacy by seeking out a new owner who shared his vision and commitment to both the game of basketball and community. In the 13 seasons since Sarver, an Arizona native, took ownership of the Suns, Phoenix has won 50 or more games five times and enjoyed the winningest four-year period in the franchise's proud history from 2004-08 (232 victories). The span includes two 60-plus win seasons (franchise-record tying 62 in 2004-05 and 61 in 2006-07), three Pacific Division titles and three trips to the Western Conference Finals. Over the last 13 seasons, the Suns have complied a 564-486 (.537) regular season record, which is the NBA's 11th-best record over that stretch.

For the second time in the team's history, the offseason addition of an All-Star turned into an NBA MVP and a franchise-record tying 62 single-season victories in 2004-05. Point guard Steve Nash, originally drafted by the franchise in 1996, returned to the Suns in the summer of 2004. In his first season in Phoenix, flanked by Amar'e Stoudemire and Shawn Marion, Nash led the club to a 33-game turnaround from the previous season, the first of two consecutive Western Conference Finals appearances and won the first of back-to-back league MVP honors. Playing a "Seven Seconds or Less" style that would revolutionize basketball, the Suns continued with a 61-win season in 2006-07 and a third Western Conference Finals appearance in six seasons in 2009-10. In 2009, the Suns hosted the 58th NBA All-Star Game in Phoenix, their third time hosting the event.

As the Suns celebrate their 50th season in 2017-18, the team is poised to ignite the next era of success behind coach Earl Watson and a collection of exciting young talent including Devin Booker, who on March 24, 2017, scored a franchise record 70 points at Boston to become just the sixth player in NBA history to score at least 70 in a game.

Season Review 68-69

16-66

On January 22, 1968, the NBA Board of Governors granted a franchise to the city of Phoenix. On April 25, 1968, the name "SUNS" was selected in a contest sponsored by The Arizona Republic. The winning entry was submitted by Mrs. Selinda King of Phoenix.

The Suns began building their team by naming Johnny "Red" Kerr as head coach. Kerr, who had coached the Chicago Bulls for the previous two years, was the NBA's Coach of the Year in 1967. Next was the 1968 NBA College Draft. Phoenix's first-ever selection was Gary Gregor, a 6-7 forward from South Carolina. The Suns continued to build the young squad by making Dick Van Arsdale the first player taken in the expansion draft. Van Arsdale had played the previous three years with New York. Phoenix also selected guard Gail Goodrich, a third-year pro, from the Los Angeles Lakers.

On October 18, the Suns opened their rookie season with a 116-107 victory over Seattle as 7,112 fans filled Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Goodrich, now in the NBA Hall of Fame, led the team with 27 points, 10 assists and nine rebounds while Van Arsdale pitched in 21 points. The Suns went on to finish the month with a 4-3 mark. But that was the last time they would be above .500 as they suffered through the rest of their first season to finish with a 16-66 record.

Goodrich and Van Arsdale led the Suns averaging 23.8 and 21.0 points, respectively. Goodrich finished sixth in the league in scoring and third as a guard behind Baltimore's Earl Monroe and Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson. Both players also appeared in the 1969 NBA All-Star game in Baltimore.

Season Review 69-70

39-43

With the addition of veterans Paul Silas and Connie Hawkins, the young Suns enjoyed a 23-game turnaround and their first-ever trip to the NBA playoffs. Silas, obtained in a trade with Atlanta for Gary Gregor, gave the team additional inside strength as he averaged nearly 12 rebounds. Following a legendary two-year stint in the ABA and one year with the world-famous Harlem Globetrotters, Hawkins provided amazing offensive talents.

On January 2, with the Suns at 15-23, Head Coach Johnny Kerr resigned just five hours prior to that night's game against San Diego. General Manager Jerry Colangelo took over as head coach and led the Suns to a 24-20 mark over the rest of the regular season and a bid to the NBA Playoffs.

The Suns drew the mighty L.A. Lakers in the first round and dropped the opening game in Los Angeles, 112-128. But the Suns showed character as they picked up the next three games behind superb play from Silas, Hawkins and Gail Goodrich. However, the likes of Wilt Chamberlain, Jerry West and Elgin Baylor were too much for the Suns as the Lakers clinched the series in seven games.

Dick Van Arsdale made his second appearance in the All-Star Game along with the team's scoring leader Hawkins. The Hawk also earned All-NBA First Team honors.

Season Review 70-71

48-34

Dick Van Arsdale returned for his third season with Phoenix as the only original Sun remaining. Offseason trades brought veterans Mel Counts and Clem Haskins to the team. In spite of the success the club enjoyed at the tail-end of the 1969-70 season, General Manager Jerry Colangelo felt the Suns needed a "career" coach. He set out to find a teacher and a motivator who could mold the Suns' young players. On June 5, 1970, Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons joined the Suns as head coach.

Fitzsimmons had led the Kansas State Wildcats to the Big Eight title the previous year, and brought a sense of passion and "Purple Pride" to the Valley. The club responded to his enthusiasm.

Phoenix posted its best finish with a 48-34 record, fourth best in the league. That included the team's best month ever with an 11-4 mark in January. However, due to the Suns' place in the tough Midwest Division, the team failed to make the playoffs.

Paul Silas led the team in rebounding for the second-straight season pulling down a franchise-best 12.5 per game including a team record 27 vs. Cincinnati on January 18. Van Arsdale led the club in scoring with a 21.9 average while Connie Hawkins netted 20.9 points per game. Van Arsdale and Hawkins were again named NBA All-Stars.

Season Review 71-72

49-33

Cotton Fitzsimmons began his second year at the helm with great anticipation. The Suns drafted Dennis "Moe" Layton, a 6-1 point guard from USC who played previously at Phoenix College. The Suns opened the season with a starting lineup of Clem Haskins and Dick Van Arsdale at guard, Neal Walk at center and Connie Hawkins and Paul Silas at the forward spots.

On March 14, the Suns obtained the rights to Charlie Scott from the Boston Celtics in exchange for future considerations. Scott, a 6-6 guard from North Carolina, had played for the Virginia Squires of the ABA, where he averaged 35 points and was the 1971 ABA Co-Rookie of the Year along with Kentucky's Dan Issel.

Phoenix compiled a then, club record mark of 49-33, improving for the fourth consecutive year. Despite having the sixth-best record in the NBA, the Suns finished behind Milwaukee and Chicago in the tough Midwest Division and failed to qualify for the playoffs.

Hawkins and Silas represented the West team in the All-Star Game. It was Hawkins' third-straight appearance, as he led the West squad to a 112-110 win with 13 points.

Silas was named as the Suns' Most Valuable Player by the fans as he led the team in rebounding for the third-straight year (11.9). Hawkins led the club in scoring with a 21.0 average while Van Arsdale added 19.7 points per game. The Suns topped their previous best in attendance totaling 342,922 fans, an average of 8,346 per contest. Phoenix also became only the fourth team in league history to lead the NBA in free throws attempted, free throws made and free throw accuracy.

Season Review 72-73

38-44

The Suns began the season under the direction of the franchise's fourth head coach, Bill van Breda Kolff. He replaced Cotton Fitzsimmons, who left in the offseason to coach the Atlanta Hawks. However, seven games into the season, van Breda Kolff was dismissed and General Manager Jerry Colangelo once again assumed the coaching duties for the remainder of the season. He guided the Suns to a 35-40 record.

Phoenix played .500 ball through mid-January but struggled through the second half of the season, finishing third in its first season playing in the Pacific Division. The season did not lack for outstanding individual performances as Charlie Scott led the club in scoring with a franchise record 25.3 average and finished fifth in the NBA. He also became just the 10th guard in league history to score more than 2,000 points. Scott and Connie Hawkins were named to the Western Conference All-Star team. It was Scott's first appearance while Hawkins made his fourth consecutive visit.

Neal Walk enjoyed his finest season as a pro, averaging 20.2 points and 12.4 rebounds. He grabbed 1,006 rebounds, the only Suns center to this day to have totaled over 1,000 boards in a single season. Rookie Corky Calhoun from the University of Pennsylvania was the only Sun to play in all 82 games.

Season Review 73-74

John MacLeod took the Suns coaching reins from General Manager Jerry Colangelo during the offseason. The youthful MacLeod had coached the previous six years at the University of Oklahoma, leading the Sooners to a 90-69 record and two trips to the National Invitational Tournament.

New to the team were rookie Mike Bantom, the eighth pick in the 1973 NBA Draft, and Keith Erickson, who was acquired in the first month of the season from the L.A. Lakers in exchange for All-Star and future Hall of Famer Connie Hawkins. Phoenix went on a 10-game skid early in the season as they were learning a new system under MacLeod and playing one of the roughest portions of their schedule. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 30-52 mark, their lowest number of wins since their inaugural season.

Charlie Scott made his second-straight appearance in the All-Star Game and finished the season averaging 25.4 points but missed the final 29 games with a broken arm. Dick Van Arsdale averaged 17.8 points and led the Suns in field goal percentage (.500). Erickson was voted by fans as the Suns' Most Outstanding Player.

Season Review 74-75

The season was preceded by one of the largest transactions in Suns history with center Neal Walk and a second-round draft pick going to New Orleans in exchange for Curtis Perry, Dennis Awtrey, Nate Hawthorne and a first-round pick in 1976.

Also new to the team was rookie John Shumate, a 6-8 forward from Notre Dame who was the fourth pick in the 1974 NBA Draft. Unfortunately, Shumate had to sit out his rookie season so he could receive treatment for blood clots. Perry had his best season as a pro averaging 13 points and 12 rebounds, winning both the Suns' Most Outstanding and Most Popular Player awards.

Charlie Scott, who finished the season as the Suns' scoring leader (24.3), was the club's lone All-Star representative. On January 14, 1975, Phoenix became the "Professional Basketball Capital of the World." The 25th annual All-Star Game was the first one ever played in Phoenix. NBA Commissioner J. Walter Kennedy was presiding over his final NBA All-Star Game before retiring.

In late February, the Suns had a shot at the NBA Playoffs, but injuries to Dick Van Arsdale and Keith Erickson knocked them from contention. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 32-50 mark.

Season Review 75-76

The Suns opened what proved to be one of their most exciting seasons by winning 14 of their first 23 games. The 14-9 start was the best in franchise history. A string of injuries and a puzzling midseason slump had the Suns winning only four of their next 22, but after the All-Star break the Suns caught fire going 24-13 and storming into the playoffs against the Seattle SuperSonics. The team clinched its first playoff berth in six years by defeating the L.A. Lakers, 113-98, at Veterans Memorial Coliseum on April 8, 1976.

There were several reasons for the Suns turnaround: a Charlie Scott for Paul Westphal trade in the offseason, the drafting of Alvan Adams and Ricky Sobers, the acquisition of Al Bianchi as assistant coach, and the midseason trade that sent John Shumate to Buffalo and brought Garfield Heard to Phoenix.

Phoenix eliminated Seattle 4-2, then went on to upset the World Champion Golden State Warriors and Rick Barry, 4-3, to gain a berth in the NBA Finals against the fabled Boston Celtics, led by Dave Cowens and John Havlicek. The Suns lost the first two games in Boston, but came back to knot the series with a pair of victories in Phoenix.

Game 5 will no doubt go down in basketball history as one of the most exciting games ever played: A triple-overtime contest that eluded the Suns by a few precious seconds and cost them the World Championship. Boston won the series 4-2.

Alvan Adams was named the NBA Rookie of the Year and became only the 10th first-year player to be named to the midseason All-Star Game. General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

Season Review 76-77

34-48

It could have been and should have been the best of times. With the addition of first-round draft pick Ron Lee, and Tom and Dick Van Arsdale playing together for the first time as pros, the Suns seemed certain to make another strong playoff run. Indeed, the Suns entered the year with the highest of expectations, but had to watch helplessly as injuries eventually claimed the entire starting frontline.

Gar Heard and Curtis Perry each missed nearly half the season and Alvan Adams, who was injured in the fourth game of the season, did not regain top form until February. The Suns had all players healthy and available for duty for only six games the entire season and finished 34-48, fifth in the Pacific Division.

Paul Westphal led the club in scoring (21.3) for the second-straight season and was named to the All-NBA First Team for the first time in his career. Lee was named to the All-Rookie Team and the Suns set a new home attendance mark, averaging more than 10,000 fans per game.

Westphal was voted to the starting unit of the West squad at the All-Star Game in Milwaukee, scored 20 points and nearly captured the game's MVP award. As a team, the Suns set a new assist record (2,100) breaking the record they set in 1975-76. At the conclusion of the season, both Van Arsdales retired from the NBA.

On November 19, 1976, future Hall of Famer Connie Hawkins became the first Suns player to have his uniform number retired (42).

Season Review 77-78

49-33

The Suns announced a blockbuster trade just before the opening of the season: Ricky Sobers to Indiana for Don Buse, an All-Star and the NBA leader in both assists and steals. With Buse and rookie Walter Davis in the starting lineup, the Suns bolted from the gate and were 19-11 by Christmas and 34-16 by the February All-Star break. They finished with a 49-33 record, fourth best in the league, but were second in the Pacific Division behind the formidable Portland Trail Blazers, led by Bill Walton.

It was a record year for the Suns in many ways. A franchise record was set for attendance (11,464 per game). On the court, the Suns set NBA records for team steals in a season (1,059) as well as tying the league mark for assists (2,338). Davis and Paul Westphal were among the league's top 10 scorers, both averaging better than 24 points per game; both were named All-NBA Second Team and both participated for the West at the All-Star Game in Atlanta.

At the All-Star break, the Suns lost Curtis Perry with back problems and went the rest of the season with five rookies on the roster, more than any other NBA club. In the opening round of the playoffs the Suns were upset in two-straight games by the Milwaukee Bucks.

Davis went on to become the league's Rookie of the Year, the second such distinction for a Suns' player since Alvan Adams won the award following 1975-76 season. Buse was named to the NBA All-Defensive Team while Ron Lee led the league with 2.7 steals per game.

BACK ROW: Ronnie Lee, Curtis Perry, Alvan Adams, Dennis Awtrey, Bayard Forrest, Alvin Scott, Ira Terrell, Garfield Heard.

Season Review 78-79

Phoenix opened the regular season with the same starting lineup that began the 1977-78 season: Walter Davis and Gar Heard at forward, Alvan Adams at center, with Paul Westphal and Don Buse at guard. The Suns won five of their first six games and were 24-14 by January 1. By the All-Star break, the Suns were 32-20. For the third-straight year, Westphal was an All-Star starter, and Davis made it for the second-straight year.

On January 12, 1979, the Suns obtained Leonard "Truck" Robinson from the New Orleans Jazz in exchange for Ron Lee, Marty Byrnes, first-round picks in 1979 and 1980 and undisclosed cash. With an emotional overtime win over Seattle at Phoenix on March 30, the Suns qualified for the playoffs for the second year in a row and the fourth time in their 11 NBA seasons.

The regular season ended in spectacular fashion with the Suns capturing a record 50th win in the season's 80th game.

Phoenix led the NBA in steals with 915 (11.2 per game). Westphal was named All-NBA First Team, Davis was named to the second team. Buse was again named to the All-Defensive First Team. In the playoffs, the Suns got by Portland (2-1) and thrashed Kansas City (4-1), but lost to eventual World Champion Seattle SuperSonics, 4-3, in a hard-fought Western Conference Finals series.

Season Review 79-80

55-27

Phoenix opened the regular season on October 12 with a starting lineup of Walter Davis and Truck Robinson at forward, Alvan Adams at center and Don Buse and Paul Westphal at guard. The Suns were the only team in the NBA with five former All-Star participants as starters. By the All-Star break, Phoenix was 35-19.

On February 15, the Suns obtained center Rich Kelley from the New Jersey Nets in exchange for a second-round draft pick in 1983, a first-round pick in 1982 and cash. The Suns chased Seattle and the L.A. Lakers for the Pacific Division lead for virtually the entire 82-game schedule, moving into a tie for the lead in late November and early December. For the majority of the season, the Suns were locked in third place in the Pacific.

For the second season in a row Buse, Adams, Davis and Westphal all finished with over 300 assists, the only time in NBA history that four players on the same team had accomplished the feat. Davis and Westphal played in the NBA All-Star Game in Washington. Westphal and Davis were named to the All-NBA First Team and Second Teams, respectively. In the playoffs, the Suns defeated Kansas City, 2-1, then lost to the L.A. Lakers, 4-1.

In the winter of 1980, the Phoenix Suns Gorilla arrived on the scene in the form of an Eastern Onion singing telegram messenger. He was invited back, and has "hung" around ever since.

Season Review 80-81

57-25

When the Suns opened the season, questions surrounded newcomer Dennis Johnson, who had come to the Suns in a controversial deal that sent Paul Westphal to Seattle. There also were doubts about the Suns ability to adjust to the move of All-Star forward Walter Davis to the backcourt and the addition of Jeff Cook into the starting lineup at forward. The Suns responded with one of their most successful seasons ever, finishing with a then club-record 57 wins en route to their first division title and the best record in the Western Conference. Phoenix was out of first place for only two days.

The Suns' 36-5 home record tied their 1979-80 mark as the best in the club's history and their 21-20 record on the road was the first-ever winning road record. The Suns did not lose more than two games in a row all season.

The Suns played their 1,000th game on November 12, 1980, a 130-127 win over the visiting San Antonio Spurs.

The All-Star Game in Cleveland had a distinctive Phoenix flavor with John MacLeod and the Suns coaching staff at the helm of the West squad. Davis was voted to a starting forward position by the fans and Johnson and Truck Robinson were named to the team by a vote of Western Conference coaches.

In the playoffs, the Suns were surprised by a gritty Kansas City Kings club, led by former Suns' coach Cotton Fitzsimmons, that took the Western Conference Semifinals 4-3. At season's end, Johnson was named to the All-NBA First Team and All-Defensive First Team. Suns General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for the second time by The Sporting News.

Season Review 81-82

46-36

The Suns were dealt a crippling blow just days before the season opened when guard Walter Davis suffered a fractured elbow in the final preseason game. Kyle Macy joined Dennis Johnson, Alvan Adams, Truck Robinson and Jeff Cook in the Suns' opening night starting lineup. Seeking the right combinations and the proper chemistry, 1981-82 became a season of constant change and experimentation as Head Coach John MacLeod utilized 21 different starting units.

Alvin Scott supplanted Cook in the starting lineup and later in the season Scott was supplanted by Adams, who shifted from his normal center position to allow Rich Kelley into the starting lineup. Davis began his comeback in late December, but it became clear his elbow, still joined by surgical tension wires and screws, would keep him from reaching top form. He was used in a sixth man role most of the year.

With a month remaining in the season, the Suns found themselves embroiled in a heated Western Conference playoff race. The Suns finished the regular season with a 46-36 mark, good enough for third place in the NBA Pacific Division and a playoff berth. Phoenix opened postseason play by defeating Denver, 2-1, in a hard-fought series, winning the deciding game on the Nuggets' home court. In the Western Conference Semifinals, however, the Suns ran into a L.A. Lakers juggernaut and were swept by the Lakers (4-0) who went on to sweep San Antonio, then defeated Philadelphia to win the NBA Championship. Johnson was named to the NBA All-Defensive First Team and was the lone Suns representative at the midseason All-Star Game in New Jersey.

Season Review 82-83

53-29

The Suns were ready for change. They traded Truck Robinson to New York for forward Maurice Lucas. They installed second-year man Larry Nance at the small forward slot and welcomed back a healthy Walter Davis at guard. The only holdovers in the starting lineup from 1981-82 were center Alvan Adams and guard Dennis Johnson.

As the season progressed, so did Nance. He finished the year by leading the Suns in field goal percentage (.550) and set a new franchise record for blocked shots in a season with 217.

In spite of their success, the Suns had a glaring weakness at backup center, where they juggled Jeff Cook, Joel Kramer and Lucas. With starting center Adams undersized at 6-9, the Suns needed help in the middle. Phoenix traded Cook, cash, a third-round draft pick in 1983 and other considerations to Cleveland in exchange for 7-1 center James Edwards, who was coming back after early season knee surgery.

Following the All-Star break, the Suns won 23 of the 30 games and finished the season as the hottest team in the league, winning six straight. Phoenix won 14 of its final 16 games and in the process matched its best-ever season road record (21-20). The Suns qualified for postseason play for the sixth-straight year and the seventh time in eight seasons, but were eliminated by Denver, 2-1, in the opening round.

Season Review 83-84

41-41

Due to a flood of injuries to such key players as James Edwards, Rick Robey and Paul Westphal, Suns Head Coach John MacLeod was forced to juggle his starters, searching for a consistency that did not materialize until late in the season.

The Suns struggled on the road. Only their fine home court record (31-10) kept them in the playoff race until the late stages of the season, when they put together six-straight wins, their longest winning streak of the season.

Walter Davis returned to the Western Conference All-Star squad and Larry Nance won the NBA Slam Dunk Championship in Denver.

The Suns saved their most remarkable performances for the playoffs. They defeated Portland in a hard-fought five-game first-round series, winning the fifth and deciding game on the Trail Blazers' home court. They proceeded to upend Midwest Division Champion Utah in six games in the next round, highlighted by a remarkable 111-110 overtime win in Game 4 at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum. The Suns then took on the L.A. Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. The Suns pushed the talented Lakers to six games, defeating them 135-127 in overtime in Game 3 in Phoenix and staving off elimination with a 126-121 upset win in Los Angeles with a dogged performance in Game 5. The Suns were finally eliminated in Game 6, but only when their final shot didn't connect in a 99-97 nail-biter.

Season Review 84-85

36-46

The addition of promising rookie guard Jay Humphries gave the Suns renewed hope for the season. The optimism proved fleeting however, when the Suns' leading scorer and five-time All-Star Walter Davis crashed to the Inglewood Forum floor on October 9 during a preseason game. Davis would miss the first two-thirds of the season with three torn ligaments in his left knee and would never regain full mobility during a courageous comeback attempt.

Rick Robey, Mike Sanders, Kyle Macy and Larry Nance also would miss considerable time due to injury, bringing the Suns total player games missed for the year to 266.

The Suns jumped out to a surprising 5-0 start, the best beginning in the history of the franchise. It was Nance who assumed the leadership role with Davis gone, leading the club in scoring (19.9) and virtually every other statistical category. Nance was named the NBA's first Player of the Week for the season. He would go on to make his first appearance in an NBA All-Star Game.

The Suns ranked second in the NBA in assists (2,335) dishing out more than 2,000 for the 10th year in a row. They qualified for the playoffs, but were knocked out 3-0 in the first round by the L.A. Lakers.

The Suns averaged 12,035 fans per game, setting a new attendance record for the franchise, breaking the old mark of 11,883 per game set during the 1981-82 campaign.

The Suns ended the regular season with "Suns Reunion '85," bringing back 24 former Suns players and coaches to participate in a weekend of Suns nostalgia, capped by an exhibition basketball game.

Season Review 85-86

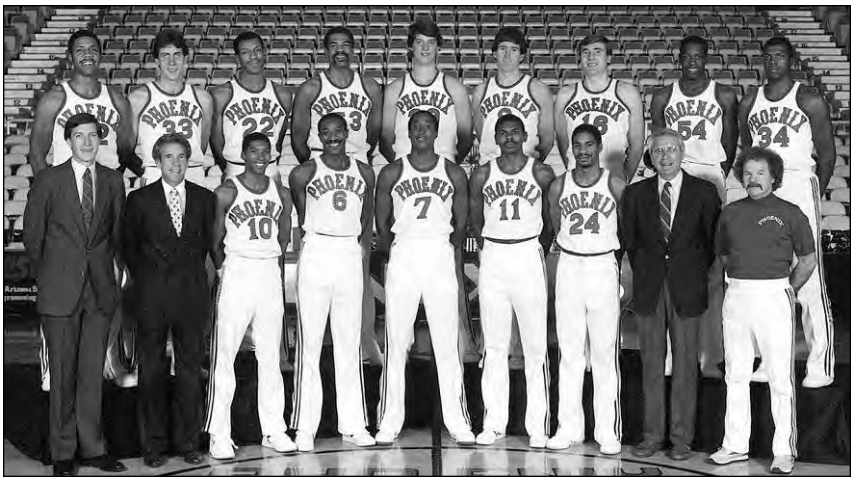
In the weeks preceding the opener, the Suns confirmed their desire to go with youth and speed by trading veteran Maurice Lucas to the Los Angeles Lakers and allowing Kyle Macy to sign with Chicago. All-Star forward Larry Nance was a contract holdout throughout training camp and preseason before coming to terms one game into the regular season. Opening night's starting lineup consisted of Jay Humphries and Walter Davis at guard, Alvan Adams at center, with Mike Sanders and Charles Jones at forward.

Phoenix got off to the then worst start in franchise history, going 0-9. During that period, the Suns successfully negotiated for the services of Georgi Glouchkov, a center from the Bulgarian National Team, who became the first Eastern Bloc player to play in the NBA. At first, Glouchkov captured national media attention, as well as the affection of Phoenix fans, but communication difficulty, not to mention achilles tendinitis, would drastically curtail his playing time as the season progressed.

Both Davis and Adams passed the 12,000-point plateau for their NBA careers with Davis taking over the Suns all-time scoring lead. Davis led the team in scoring (21.8), while Nance became the club's top rebounder (8.5). For the first time in their history, the Suns did not place a player on the squad for the NBA All-Star Game.

The Suns attendance held its own for the season, with an average of 11,121 per game. The Suns could never recover from their 0-9 beginning and finished the year 32-50, failing to make the playoffs for the first time in nine seasons.



FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach John Wetzel, Head Coach John MacLeod, Rod Foster, Walter Davis, Bernard Thompson, Mike Sanders, Jay Humphries, Assistant Coach Al Bianchi, Trainer Joe Proski.

Season Review 86-87

36-46

The Suns opened the season with Larry Nance and Ed Pinckney at forward, Alvan Adams at center and Walter Davis and Jay Humphries at guard. That unit would start 26 of the Suns' 82 games, but 19 other starting combinations would get a shot along the way. Phoenix had five rookies on the club including William Bedford, the team's first-round pick (sixth overall), diamond-in-the-rough Jeff Hornacek, Rafael Addison, Grant Gondrezick and Kenny Gattison. The Suns' 12-12 record in mid-December would be the last time they would be at .500.

On February 26, after consecutive losses to the L.A. Lakers and their record at 22-34, the Suns released their head coach of 13-plus seasons, John MacLeod, replacing him with interim Head Coach Dick Van Arsdale.

Under Van Arsdale, the Suns halted their skid, going 14-12 over the season's final 26 games. During the final two weeks, the Suns won nine of their last 10 games and 12 of their last 15. They won nine straight at home to end the season. Davis led the team in scoring with a 23.6 average while Nance chipped in 22.5 points per game. Davis also made his sixth appearance in the All-Star Game.

Season Review 87-88

28-54

When the Phoenix Suns projected their opening night lineup, rookie Head Coach John Wetzel envisioned a starting unit of Larry Nance and Armon Gilliam at forward, James Edwards at center with Walter Davis and Jay Humphries at guard. During the season's final month, the Suns' starting unit had evolved into Eddie Johnson at small forward, Gilliam at power forward, Mark West at center, Kevin Johnson and Jeff Hornacek at guard.

The Suns finished the season with a 28-54 record, their poorest record since their 16-66 expansion season in 1968-69. However, in Suns history, 1987-88 will likely be referred to as "The Year of the Trade." In late February, Suns Director of Player Personnel, Cotton Fitzsimmons, orchestrated a series of trades that changed the face and the fortunes of the Suns. In the largest single transaction to that point in the 20-year history of the Suns franchise, Fitzsimmons dealt Nance and Mike Sanders, along with Detroit's first-round pick in 1988 to Cleveland in exchange for the Cavs' first- and second-round draft picks in 1988, and players KJ, West and Tyrone Corbin. The Suns finished off the trading flurry by sending Humphries to Milwaukee for Craig Hodges.

The new-look Suns put together a respectable 11-9 record over the last quarter of the season and KJ won Rookie of the Month honors for April. Shortly after the end of the season, Wetzel was released and was replaced by Fitzsimmons, who was making his second appearance as the Suns' head coach.

Season Review 88-89

55-27

When the season began, no one predicted that the Suns would end up with the fourth-best record in the NBA and give the defending World Champion Los Angeles Lakers a serious run for the Pacific Division title. However, the Suns did just that on their way to the third-biggest turnaround in NBA history, improving by 27 games.

The 1988-89 Suns did not resemble any past Suns squads as Jeff Hornacek was the lone holdover from two years before. Director of Player Personnel Cotton Fitzsimmons took over as head coach prior to the season and brought assistant coaches Paul Westphal, Lionel Hollins and Truck Robinson on board.

The Suns won 55 games, including 18 of their last 22 games. They were the only team in the league to have three players average 20-plus points (Tom Chambers 25.7, Eddie Johnson 21.5, Kevin Johnson 20.4) and led the league with 118.6 points per game.

The Suns set a new Coliseum attendance record with an average of 12,465 fans at home and 18 sellouts, also a franchise record.

The Suns defeated Denver in the first round of the playoffs and won their second round series against Golden State 4-1. Next up were the Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. They played the Lakers tough but fell 4-0.

The Suns were showered with postseason awards. Eddie Johnson won the NBA Sixth Man Award, Kevin Johnson was named the Most Improved Player, Fitzsimmons won NBA Coach of the Year and President and CEO Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for the third time. It was the first time in NBA history that a single team won four postseason league awards. Chambers and KJ were also selected to the All-NBA Second Team.

Season Review 89-90

RECORD
54-28

The 1989-90 Suns featured eight returning players from the previous year's team and finished 54-28.

Phoenix ended the season second in the NBA in points scored (114.9) and 22 road wins established a new team record. The Suns also established a new NBA record on April 9 when they hit 61 free throws against Utah. The club won a single season team-record 19 in a row at home.

Tom Chambers set the club record for total points in a season (2,201) and scoring average (27.2) and placed fourth in the league in scoring average.

Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons reached the .500 mark for his career with a win over Philadelphia on February 24. It was the first time he was at the .500 level since March 7, 1976, when he was head coach of Atlanta. Fitzsimmons, the 1989 NBA Coach of the Year, was named Coach of the Month for February.

The Suns set an all-time regular season home attendance record on April 3 against Dallas, and played in front of 578,661 fans on the year. The Suns had 26 sellouts to set a new franchise record, topping the old mark of 18 set in 1988-89.

Phoenix began playoff competition with a hard-fought 3-2 series win over Utah. They then defeated the L.A. Lakers, 4-1, in the Western Conference Semifinals; the first time a Suns team defeated the Lakers in a seven-game playoff series. The Suns then lost to Portland, 4-2, in the conference finals. Chambers and Kevin Johnson were both named to the All-NBA Second Team.

Season Review 90-91

55-27

Following two consecutive trips to the Western Conference Finals and two-straight 50-plus win seasons, expectations of the Suns were high. They did not disappoint as the club finished 55-27.

The Suns took off for Tokyo, Japan, to open the season with two games against Utah. It marked the first time that professional sports teams from the United States played regular season games outside of North America. The Suns and Jazz split the two games.

The Suns set several records versus Denver on November 10. In that game, Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons won his 700th career game, becoming only the seventh coach in NBA history to achieve that mark. As a team, the Suns set a new NBA record for points in a half, scoring 107 first-half points, and tied the record for points in a non-overtime game with 173 vs. Denver on November 10.

On November 27 in Portland, the Suns defeated the Trail Blazers 123-109, ending a 20-game losing streak in Portland.

Phoenix set another club record with its 13-3 mark in March, the most wins by a Suns team in any month.

Phoenix finished the year with a 32-9 record at home and a 23-18 mark on the road. The 23 road wins eclipsed the record of 22 set during the 1989-90 season. However, the Suns lost in the opening round of the playoffs, 3-1, to Utah.

Season Review 91-92

53-29

The Suns' 53-29 record marked the fourth-straight year with 50 or more wins. The Suns opened the season with a grueling November in which they went 8-9, but rebounded to go 11-1 in December, 10-6 in January, 7-6 in an injury-plagued February, 12-3 in March and 5-4 in April.

The season included the franchise's 1,000th career win as the Suns became just the 12th franchise in NBA history to reach the 1,000-win plateau and only Milwaukee, Boston, Philadelphia and the Lakers did so in less time. Phoenix's 36-5 home record tied the team's previous best set during the 1978-90 and 1980-81 seasons.

Five Suns players – Jeff Hornacek, Kevin Johnson, Dan Majerle, Tom Chambers and Tim Perry – averaged double figure scoring as Phoenix averaged 112.1 points, second in the league.

The Suns completed their 24th and final season at Veterans Memorial Coliseum by setting a new regular season attendance record with sellouts in each of the 41 home games.

The Suns defeated San Antonio, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs and lost to Portland, 4-1, in the second round. The last NBA game played at Veterans Memorial Coliseum was a 153-151 overtime loss May 11 in Game 4 against Portland. KJ scored 35 points for the Suns while Clyde Drexler pumped in 33 for the Blazers.

Season Review 92-93

62-20

The Suns had high expectations going into their 25th Anniversary season in the new America West Arena. Bolstered by a June 17, 1992, trade for Charles Barkley which sent Jeff Hornacek, Andrew Lang and Tim Perry to Philadelphia, Phoenix led the NBA with a franchise-record 62 wins. Phoenix also acquired veteran guard Danny Ainge and elevated Paul Westphal to head coach.

Westphal became the winningest rookie coach in NBA history and Barkley went on to become the first Phoenix player to be named NBA MVP.

The Suns began the season without Kevin Johnson, who missed 31 games due to injury. However, the Suns had a perfect December as Phoenix tied the NBA's third-best mark for a month with a 14-0 record.

At the All-Star Game, Phoenix was represented by the West's leading vote-getter Barkley and reserve Dan Majerle, as well as Westphal and his staff who led the West to victory.

Barkley averaged 25.6 points and 12.2 rebounds and led the Suns to their second Pacific Division title. The club led the NBA in scoring (113.4), broke the NBA record for three-pointers made (398) and set a franchise home attendance record (779,943). Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for an unprecedented fourth time.

Down 0-2 against the L.A. Lakers in the first round of the playoffs, the Suns became the first team in history to come back and win 3-2. The Suns downed Seattle in seven games to earn a trip to the NBA Finals against Chicago. Phoenix lost the first two games at home, but won two of the next three in Chicago, including Game 3, a triple-overtime affair that saw Majerle tie an NBA Finals record with six three-pointers and KJ set an NBA Finals record with 62 total minutes played. But the Suns came up short as John Paxson buried a three-pointer with 3.9 seconds remaining in Game 6 in Phoenix to give the Bulls a 4-2 series win and their third-straight NBA Championship.

Season Review 93-94

56-26

The Suns added veterans A.C. Green and Joe Kleine to their Western Conference Championship team, but battled injuries throughout the season. Despite losing 211 player games to injury and illness the Suns posted a 56-26 record, the fifth best overall mark in the NBA. The Suns posted an impressive 13-2 record in December, but the team's fortunes took a drastic turn for the worse in January. After playing the first two months of the season virtually injury-free, the Suns top two players, Kevin Johnson and Charles Barkley, went down with injuries. Johnson missed 15 games from January 5 to February 6 with a sprained right ankle and a bout with chicken pox. Barkley suffered a torn quadriceps tendon in his right knee, January 7, at Minnesota and missed the next 17 contests. The team struggled to a 7-8 mark, their first losing month since November 1991.

Cedric Ceballos, who returned to the lineup after missing the first 29 games, led the team during January and had two 40-point nights in a three-game stretch. Green averaged 19.3 points and led the team with 11.4 rebounds. Phoenix bounced back to capture an 8-4 mark in February. KJ, Barkley and Danny Ainge all returned to the lineup. KJ played in his third All-Star Game while Barkley, the league's leading vote-getter in balloting, was unable to play due to injury.

The Suns' march to the playoffs included a seven-game win streak. KJ had an impressive April, including a Suns record 25 assists in a win over San Antonio on April 6. The Suns beat Golden State 3-0 in the first round. In Game 3, Barkley scored 56 points, the third highest total ever in an NBA playoff game. After overcoming a 20-point fourth quarter deficit to take Game 1, the Suns again came from behind to win Game 2 of their second-round matchup against Houston. But, the eventual champion Rockets were too tough, and battled back to take the series 4-3.

Season Review 94-95

59-23

A flurry of offseason activity brought free agents Danny Manning and Wayman Tisdale to a talent-laden roster as six current or former All-Stars suited up. While the team appeared ready to take their final step toward an NBA title, injuries plagued the club early and often. Charles Barkley strained an abdominal muscle during preseason and missed the first 11 games. Kevin Johnson sat out 35 games during the year with leg injuries. Most damaging was the season-ending knee injury Manning suffered February 6, after averaging 17.9 points and 6.0 rebounds in 46 games.

Rookie Wesley Person, Elliot Perry and Dan Majerle enabled the Suns to withstand the injury firestorm and hold the NBA's top mark (38-10) at the break. Person earned a place on the NBA's All-Rookie Second Team. Perry finished second in voting for the NBA's Most Improved Player award, while Majerle became the first reserve to be voted to start on an All-Star team.

Majerle, Barkley and the rest of the West team were coached to a win by Suns Head Coach Paul Westphal at the 45th annual All-Star Game at America West Arena.

The Suns won eight of their last nine games to capture their third Pacific Division title and earn the second seed in the playoffs.

The Suns swept Portland, 3-0, setting up a rematch with Houston. Gaining momentum in the second round, the Suns took a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven-game series. But the defending champions refused to give up and battled back to win three-straight, including an overtime victory in Game 5 and a one-point win in Game 7, on their way to a second-straight NBA championship.

Season Review 95-96

41-41

Several outstanding individual performances and historical milestones highlighted the season, most notably Charles Barkley becoming the 10th player in NBA history to reach the 20,000 point-10,000 rebound level (Feb. 19 vs. Vancouver).

The Suns failed to win 50 or more games for the first time since 1987-88 and endured 26 lineup changes and 296 games missed due to injury/illness.

At the start of training camp, the Suns acquired John "Hot Rod" Williams from Cleveland for Dan Majerle, Antonio Lang and a conditional first-round draft pick. On January 16, Cotton Fitzsimmons replaced Paul Westphal as head coach and guided the team to a 27-22 record in his third stint at the Suns helm.

Danny Manning missed the first 42 games recovering from a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee, but played in 33 of the remaining 40 and averaged 13.4 points and 4.3 rebounds. Barkley averaged 23.2 points and 11.6 rebounds, his best averages since earning the league MVP award in 1993. He was also Player of the Month for February. Kevin Johnson, the NBA's Player of the Week (April 7), overcame early-season injuries that forced him to miss 26 games and averaged 18.7 points and 9.2 assists.

Michael Finley, who was named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team, became the first Suns rookie since Walter Davis to score 1,000 points. A.C. Green completed his ninth-straight season without missing a game and pushed his consecutive games played streak to 813, third in NBA history.

The Suns were the No. 7 seed in the West and were without Finley, who suffered a sprained left ankle in the final quarter of the season finale at Houston. For the first time since 1991, the Suns lost in the first round, as San Antonio scored a 3-1 series win.

Season Review 96-97

40-42

In a season of growth and transition, Phoenix overcame a club-worst 0-13 start and qualified for the postseason. The Suns became the first team in NBA history to make the playoffs after losing its first 13 games.

The reshaping of the team began with the offseason trade of Charles Barkley to Houston in exchange for veterans Chucky Brown, Mark Bryant, Robert Horry and Sam Cassell and the signing of free agent Rex Chapman and rookie Steve Nash. Then on December 26, 1996, the Suns acquired All-Star guard Jason Kidd from Dallas, along with Tony Dumas and Loren Meyer, for fan favorites Michael Finley, A.C. Green and Cassell. Less than a month after the Kidd trade, former Sun Cedric Ceballos was re-acquired in a deal that sent Horry and Joe Kleine to the Lakers.

Bolstered by the improved lineup and new Head Coach Danny Ainge, who took the reins from Cotton Fitzsimmons on November 15, 1996, the new-look Suns compiled a 19-6 mark over the final two months of the season and qualified for the playoffs. The "small ball" group of Kevin Johnson, Kidd, Chapman and Wesley Person carried the bulk of the scoring load down the stretch. Phoenix averaged a league-best 109.9 points in that time. The club's torrid second half included an 11-game winning streak from March 20 to April 10 that enabled Phoenix to become the first team in league history to own a double-digit losing streak and a double-digit winning steak in the same season.

While the Suns fell 3-2 to Seattle in the first round of the 1997 postseason, the series was memorable. Chapman's running, one-handed three-pointer with 1.7 seconds remaining in Game 4 sent the game into overtime. Chapman connected on an NBA-record nine three-pointers and had a playoff career-high 42 points in the Suns' Game 1 win at Seattle.

KJ became just the sixth player in league history to record 11,500 points, 6,000 assists, 2,000 rebounds and 1,000 steals for his career.

Season Review 97-98

56-26

The 1997-98 season was poised as a rebuilding season, but far exceeded expectations. The club convinced Kevin Johnson to put off his retirement and play his 11th NBA season, signed free agents Clifford Robinson and George McCloud and acquired Antonio McDyess from Denver for Wesley Person, Tony Dumas and four draft picks in a three-team trade.

The Suns' 17-9 record at the end of December was their best start since the 1994-95 season when they ended the season with the second-best record in the league. However, an injury to Danny Manning (torn ACL on April 7) changed the complexion of the team for the rest of the season and into the playoffs, but the Suns were able to finish strong by winning 11 of their last 12 games.

The club put together a 10-game winning streak, including wins over Seattle, Portland, L.A. Lakers and Houston, from March 25 to April 17 and the Suns were a perfect 6-0 on the road in April.

Phoenix recorded 10 of the 15 top defensive performances in team history. Suns opponents were limited to 80 points or less 14 times, and the Suns were 45-9 when holding their opponents to below 100 points.

Manning earned the NBA's Sixth Man Award, becoming only the second player in franchise history, and the first in nine years, to be so honored. Jason Kidd was named to the West All-Star team, his second appearance, and the Suns' first since 1996.

The Suns faced San Antonio in the first round of playoffs with a homecourt advantage. The Spurs won the first game but the Suns came back and won the second game to even the series. San Antonio won both games at the Alamodome by an average of 15.5 points to win the series, 3-1.

Johnson moved past Nate "Tiny" Archibald into 10th place on the all-time NBA career assist list, and on March 29 he scored his 13,000th career point.

BACK ROW: Dennis Scott, Danny Manning, Horacio Llamas, Loren Meyer, John "Hot Rod" Williams, Clifford Robinson, Antonio McDyess, Mark Bryant, Marko Milic.

Season Review 98-99

27-23

A season that began late and was shortened due to labor strife finished with the Suns earning an 11th-straight berth in the NBA Playoffs. The NBA suffered through a lockout from June 30 through January 21, and as a result the season was reduced to 50 regular season games. After the lockout, the club added All-Star Tom Gugliotta and three-time NBA titlist Luc Longley while re-signing free agents Rex Chapman, Clifford Robinson and George McCloud.

The top individual performance was turned in by Jason Kidd, who gained All-NBA First Team and All-Defensive First Team honors at season's end. He became the first Suns player to lead the league in assists (10.8 apg) and also topped all NBA guards with 6.8 rebounds. Kidd posted seven triple-doubles, with the rest of the NBA combining for 11.

For the second-straight season, the Suns led the league in assists with 25.0 per game, backed by Kidd's league-best average. Phoenix also placed second with a .372 three-point field goal percentage, as Robinson finished eighth with a career-best .417 and McCloud was ninth at .416.

A playoff berth was in jeopardy as Phoenix owned a 15-18 mark in early April. However, the Suns won their final eight home games and finished the season with a 12-5 mark to tie for third in the Pacific Division. The eight-straight home wins were the most since 1994-95 when the team won its first 13 home games of the season.

Phoenix faced Pacific Division champion Portland in the opening round of the playoffs and dropped the series, 3-0, as all three games were decided late in the fourth quarter.

Head Coach Danny Ainge became the second fastest Suns coach to reach 100 wins, as the team won at Denver on February 15 to give Ainge his 100th win in 162 games.

Season Review 99-00

RECORD
53-29

In a season that was anything but scripted, the Suns recorded 50 or more wins for the ninth time in 12 seasons and advanced to the Western Conference Semifinals for the first time since 1995.

Phoenix opened the playoffs with a 3-1 series win over defending champion San Antonio before falling to the eventual champion Lakers 4-1 in the second-round.

Defensively the Suns had their top season ever, limiting opponents to 93.7 points and .424 shooting from the field. Jason Kidd and Clifford Robinson were each named NBA All-Defensive Second Team and Kidd finished tied for fifth in the NBA with 2.0 steals.

Kidd was named All-NBA First Team for the second-straight season and led all Western Conference guards in All-Star voting. Rodney Rogers won the NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award with the second-highest percentage of the vote in history (86.0%) and Shawn Marion earned NBA All-Rookie Second Team honors.

The season was one of challenges as the Suns lost a total of 269 games due to injury, with Anfernee Hardaway (right foot, 21 games) and Marion (left knee, 31 games) missing most of two months. On December 13 with the club 13-7, Head Coach Danny Ainge unexpectedly stepped down and lead assistant Scott Skiles was promoted to the top spot. Days later without three starters, the Suns pulled out a 110-102 win at Portland behind Tom Gugliotta's 17 points and 14 rebounds. Within an hour of the win, he suffered a seizure on the team bus and missed seven games. Back to form and playing perhaps his best ball of the season, he went down on March 10 with a season-ending left knee injury.

Robinson moved into the starting lineup in December due to the injuries and supplied the missing offense. He finished the season with a team-best 18.5 points that included an America West Arena record and career-high 50 points on January 16 in a 113-100 win.

With the return of Hardaway and Marion the club started to gel, going 10-3 in February and 12-4 in March (13-1 at home during that time). Too good to be true, Kidd went down March 22 with a fractured left ankle that left him sidelined until Game 4 of the opening round of the playoffs. Suns great Kevin Johnson came out of retirement on March 25 to replace Kidd on the active roster.

Season Review 00-01

51-31

Competing in the toughest conference in NBA history, the Suns owned the eighth-best record in the NBA and finished with 50-plus wins for the 10th time in 13 seasons as seven Western Conference teams had 50 or more victories.

Phoenix posted its top defensive season in club history by allowing 91.8 points per game, fewest in the team's existence, and held opponents to .435 shooting from the field, second-best in club history.

Phoenix was the only NBA team to have five people average double figures in scoring with Shawn Marion topping the team with 17.3, Jason Kidd at 16.9, Clifford Robinson averaging 16.4 points, newcomer Tony Delk adding 12.3 points and Rodney Rogers at 12.2 points. Marion also emerged as a factor on the glass in his second season as he finished eighth in the NBA with 10.8 rebounds to become the first Sun since 1995-96 and sixth player in team history to average 10-plus rebounds for a season.

For the second-straight season the Suns had a player score 50 points as Delk reached the mark at Sacramento, his former team, with an ARCO Arena record 53 points on January 2 in an overtime loss to the Kings.

Kidd joined Oscar Robertson, Bob Cousy and John Stockton as the only players in NBA history to win the assist title three-straight seasons with a league-high 9.8 assists. Kidd was also named All-NBA First Team for the third consecutive season and NBA All-Defensive First Team.

The Suns finished the season with an NBA-best 13-4 mark after March 19, a stretch that included a nine-game home winning streak to close out the year. Phoenix placed third in the Pacific Division and sixth in the Western Conference.

That led to a first-round playoff matchup against Sacramento and the Suns opened the series with a win at Sacramento but then lost three in a row to fall to the Kings.

Season Review 01-02

36-46

It was a season of transition for the Suns as 20 different players dotted the roster during the season. Three in-season trades, two summer trades and a coaching change were factors in the season of flux and Phoenix missed the playoffs for the first time since 1987-88.

Prior to the season the Suns acquired Stephon Marbury from New Jersey in exchange for Jason Kidd and John Wallace and Jud Buechler from Detroit for Clifford Robinson. During the season the Suns added Jake Voskuhl, Bo Outlaw, Joe Johnson, Milt Palacio and Randy Brown through trades. On February 17 the club had a change of leadership when Frank Johnson took over for Scott Skiles.

But the flurry of activity did not stop the Suns from winning the 1,500th game in club history with a 92-83 win over San Antonio on February 24. In the process the Suns became the fourth-fastest franchise in NBA history to reach the 1,500-win mark.

In his first season with the Suns, Marbury averaged a team-best 20.4 points, the first time a Phoenix player averaged 20-plus points since 1996-97 when Kevin Johnson had 20.1 points. Shawn Marion added 19.1 points to give the Suns their first 19-plus point tandem since 1993-94 when Charles Barkley (21.6) and KJ (20.0) turned the trick. Marbury was also sixth in the NBA with 8.1 assists and Marion was one of two NBA players to be ranked in the top 40 in seven of the league's nine major statistical categories, including eighth with 9.9 rebounds.

The season marked the last in the 14-year NBA career of Dan Majerle and the Phoenix fan favorite finished his career with a made three-pointer to give him 800 for his Suns tenure and 1,360 (fifth in NBA history) over his career.

After joining the Suns on February 20 from Boston in a trade for Rodney Rogers and Tony Delk, Joe Johnson averaged 9.6 points and 4.1 rebounds in 29 games and earned All-NBA Rookie Second Team honors at season's end.

Season Review 02-03

44-38

Only one year removed from missing the postseason, the Suns reemerged as playoff contenders by securing the eighth and final seed in the competitive Western Conference. Sparking the eight-game improvement were 2003 All-Stars Stephon Marbury and Shawn Marion, the veteran leadership of Anfernee Hardaway and 2002-03 "got milk?" NBA Rookie of the Year Amar'e Stoudemire.

The Suns weren't just content with being back on their postseason course, though. The young squad put a scare into the NBA's top team and eventual NBA Champion San Antonio Spurs by stealing two victories in their first-round series on a couple of improbable game-winning shots by Marbury (Game 1) and Jake Voskuhl (Game 4).

The Suns' turnaround began at the 2002 NBA Draft when Phoenix selected high school phenom Stoudemire and Casey Jacobsen in the first round. Stoudemire eventually became the league's youngest ROY winner in the award's history and just the third Suns player to win the honor, following Walter Davis in 1977-78 and Alvan Adams in 1975-76.

Phoenix also got two All-Star performances from its top two players, Marbury and Marion, who became the Suns' first All-Star duo since 1995 (Charles Barkley and Dan Majerle). Marbury was the only player in the NBA to be in the top 12 in points (22.3, 12th) and assists (8.1, 4th), and capped his season with his second selection to the All-NBA Third Team. Marion finished the season as the only player ranked in top 20 in points (21.2, 17th) and top 10 in rebounds (9.5, 8th) and steals (2.28, 3rd).

Phoenix was a season-best 10 games above .500 on Jan. 12 (24-14) until injuries to three of the team's five opening night starters (Hardaway, Jake Tsakalidis, Tom Gugliotta) sent the team into a midseason slump. Led by Frank Johnson, in his first full season as head coach, the Suns won eight of their last 12 games to clinch a playoff spot in the final week of the regular season.

The campaign was only the second in the franchise's 35 years and the first since 1970-71 that the Suns did not make a player addition/subtraction or coaching change during the season.

Season Review 03-04

29-53

From the roster to the coaching staff to the arena they play in, 2003-04 became a season of change and adjustment for the Phoenix Suns.

The season began with high hopes, but after struggling through the first six weeks, the Suns opted for a coaching change. Mike D'Antoni was named the club's 12th head coach in team history on Dec. 10, replacing Frank Johnson. Less than one month later on Jan. 5, Phoenix pulled off a major deal that sent Stephon Marbury, Anfernee Hardaway and Cezary Trybanski to New York for Antonio McDyess, Howard Eisley, Maciej Lampe, Charlie Ward, the draft rights to Milos Vujanic, two first-round picks and cash.

Even though the team finished 29-53 and missed the playoffs, the deal offered salary cap flexibility and transformed the club into the youngest team in the NBA, and put the franchise in excellent position to improve via free agency in the offseason.

One player who clearly benefited from the trade was Joe Johnson, who took advantage of increased playing time, and averaged nearly 20 points, five rebounds and five assists in the final 48 games. After a slow start, Amar'e Stoudemire led the Suns in scoring with 20.6 points, but played in only 55 games due to a left ankle, big toe injury.

Suns Chairman and CEO Jerry Colangelo was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. on April 5, joining former Suns player Connie Hawkins as a recipient of the sport's highest honor. Shortly after the season ended, Arizona native Robert Sarver led an investment group that purchased the club for an NBA record $401 million on June 30.

Season Review 04-05

The Phoenix Suns posted one of the most remarkable turnarounds in NBA history under the direction of new majority owner Robert Sarver and became only the second team in NBA history (1979-80 Boston Celtics) to post a 60-win season following a 50-loss season. Prior to the start of the season, few could have predicted what would ensue... best record in the NBA, the third-greatest turnaround in league history, a franchise-record tying 62 regular season victories, including a remarkable 31-10 road record, the team's first trip to the Western Conference Finals since 1993, and NBA MVP (Steve Nash), Coach of the Year (Mike D'Antoni) and Executive of the Year (Bryan Colangelo) individual honors.

Aided by the offseason signings of Nash and Quentin Richardson, the Suns jumped out to a 31-4 start and never looked back. The two teamed with Amar'e Stoudemire, Shawn Marion and Joe Johnson to form one of the most explosive starting fives in the NBA in recent memory. The club's high-octane offense posted the league's highest scoring average in a decade (110.4) and broke the NBA record for most three-pointers made in a single season (796).

The surprising Suns were well represented at the 2005 All-Star Weekend in Denver with the entire starting five in attendance, including the outstanding trio of Nash, Stoudemire and Marion in the main event. Nash was the catalyst for the Suns' 33-game improvement and was rewarded by becoming only the second Suns player (Charles Barkley, 1992-93) to be named NBA MVP after averaging 15.5 points and a career-high 11.5 assists. In only his third NBA season, Stoudemire averaged a team-high 26.0 points, trailing only Tom Chambers' franchise-best 27.2 scoring average set in 1989-90. Marion, who averaged 19.4 points and a career-high 11.3 rebounds, became only the second player ever (David Robinson, 1991-92) to rank in the top five in the league in rebounding and steals.

After locking up home-court advantage throughout the playoffs, the top-seeded Suns earned their first sweep ever in a best-of-seven series by ousting the Memphis Grizzlies in the first round. Then despite losing Johnson to a devastating orbital bone fracture that sidelined him for the remainder of the Western Conference Semifinals in Game 2, the Suns bounced back in spectacular fashion to knock off the Dallas Mavericks in a thrilling six-game series. The eventual NBA Champion San Antonio Spurs knocked off the Suns 4-1 in the Western Conference Finals.

A resilient and determined Phoenix Suns team advanced to the Western Conference Finals for the second year in a row after overcoming numerous obstacles.

An unfortunate preseason knee injury to All-Star Amar'e Stoudemire and an overhauled roster had critics dismissing the Suns as a playoff contender, but the run-and-gun Suns won their second consecutive Pacific Division title for the first time in franchise history. Despite returning only three active players from the 2004-05 roster (Steve Nash, Shawn Marion, Leandro Barbosa) and the loss of the NBA's fifth-leading scorer (Stoudemire), Phoenix became the first team in NBA history to lead the league in scoring (108.4), field goal percentage (.479), three-point field goal percentage (.399) and free-throw percentage (.806).

Nash directed an explosive offense that featured seven players who recorded career years in scoring. For his efforts, Nash was awarded his second consecutive NBA MVP award after posting career highs in scoring (18.8), rebounds (4.2), field goal percentage (.512), free throw percentage (franchise-record .921) and minutes played (35.4). Equally impressive was teammate Marion, who enjoyed a career year, posting career highs in scoring (21.8), rebounds (11.8), blocks (1.69), double-doubles (60) and field goal percentage (.525). Perhaps, the biggest surprise was the emergence of newcomer Boris Diaw, who came to Phoenix from Atlanta in the Joe Johnson sign-and-trade deal, and became the second player (Kevin Johnson, 1988-89) in franchise history to be named the NBA's Most Improved Player after averaging 13.3 points, 6.9 rebounds and 6.2 assists.

After locking up the No. 2 seed in the Western Conference playoffs, the Suns became only the eighth team in NBA history to wipe out a 3-1 deficit and defeat the L.A. Lakers in the first round. In yet another grueling seven-game series, Phoenix ousted the L.A. Clippers in the conference semifinals and took a stunning 1-0 lead in the Western Conference Finals with a 121-118 road win in Dallas on May 24. Unfortunately, the win came at a cost. Starting guard Raja Bell suffered a left calf strain late in the game that hampered the team's inspirational leader the rest of the series as the pesky Suns finally bowed out in six games.

On Jan. 6, 2006, America West Arena, the Suns home since 1992-93, was officially renamed the US Airways Center.

Season Review 06-07

61-21

After making back-to-back trips to the Western Conference Finals, expectations for the 2006-07 Phoenix Suns were incredibly high, and the team did little to disappoint.

The Suns captured their third consecutive Pacific Division title (sixth in club history) and finished with the NBA's second-best record (61-21), marking the third 60-win season in franchise history (second since 2004). The season included two of the team's longest win streaks in franchise history (17, 15). In doing so, Phoenix became just the fifth team in NBA history to post two separate win streaks of 14 or more in a single season and the first team since the 1999-2000 Los Angeles Lakers.

Led by reigning two-time NBA MVP Steve Nash, who posted career highs in assists, field goal percentage and three-point field goal percentage, the Suns led the NBA in points per game, field goal percentage, free-throw percentage and three-point percentage for the second consecutive year. Phoenix clearly benefited from the healthy return of Amar'e Stoudemire, who joined Nash as a selection on the All-NBA First Team. Nash, Stoudemire and Shawn Marion represented the club at the 2007 NBA All-Star Game in Las Vegas, marking only the third time in franchise history the club has sent a trio of players to the All-Star Game. Leandro Barbosa became just the fourth player in team history to be named the NBA's Sixth Man of the Year after averaging a career-high 18.1 points. Raja Bell was named to the All-NBA Defensive First Team and his career-high 205 three-pointers made tied him with Gilbert Arenas for the league lead.

The Suns entered the postseason with the No. 2 seed in the Western Conference and easily dispatched Kobe Bryant and the Los Angeles Lakers in five games in a rematch of the 2006 first-round playoff series. With the top-seeded Dallas Mavericks getting eliminated in the first round of the playoffs against the Golden State Warriors, Phoenix was ensured of having home-court advantage throughout the remainder of the playoffs, but a difficult Western Conference Semifinals series against the San Antonio Spurs was looming. Phoenix earned a split in the first four games of the series, but the Suns were hamstrung by the controversial one-game suspensions of Stoudemire and Boris Diaw for Game 5 in Phoenix. They were suspended after leaving "the immediate vicinity of their bench" and responding to Robert Horry's hard foul on Nash with 18 seconds remaining in the fourth period of the Suns' 104-98 win over the Spurs in Game 4. A shorthanded Suns team nearly defeated the Spurs in Game 5 (88-85), but a late fourth-quarter rally fell just short in Game 6 in Alamo City. It marked the third time in the last five seasons the Spurs ended the Suns season and went on to win the NBA championship.

Season Review 07-08

55-27

The 2007-08 Phoenix Suns continued an era of unprecedented success in the franchise's history. Despite undergoing a 7-foot-1, 321-pound midseason makeover with the addition of four-time NBA Champion Shaquille O'Neal, the Suns won 55 games to complete the winningest four-season stretch in team history with 232 victories from 2004-05 to 2007-08.

With the offseason announcement of five-time NBA Champion Steve Kerr as the team's President of Basketball Operations and General Manager, and the free-agent signing of seven-time All-Star Grant Hill, the Suns won at least 54 games for the franchise-record fourth consecutive season. Phoenix was once again among the league's scoring leaders, averaging more than 110 points for the third time in the last four seasons.

The Suns were led by the All-Star tandem of Steve Nash and Amar'e Stoudemire, who earned their sixth and third berths, respectively. Among the league's greatest passers, Nash finished second in the NBA in assists (11.1) and continued to establish himself as one of the game's best shooters, setting a career-high in three-pointers (179, 6th-NBA) for the second-straight season and shooting a career-high three-point percentage (.470, 2nd-NBA). Stoudemire became the first NBA player since Tim Duncan in 2001-02 to average 25 points (team-high 25.2, 5th-NBA), nine rebounds (team-best 9.1, 19th-NBA) and two blocks (career-high and team-best 2.06, 6th-NBA).

The Suns rocked the NBA on Feb. 6, 2008, when they acquired 14-time All-Star O'Neal in exchange for Shawn Marion and Marcus Banks. Shaq made his Suns debut on Feb. 20 at US Airways Center in a nationally-televised tilt against the L.A. Lakers. The doubters grew loud after Phoenix went 3-6 in its first nine games with The Big Cactus, but the trade energized the Suns and the city of Phoenix as the club won 15 of its final 20 games to finish tied for the fourth-best record in the most competitive Western Conference in NBA history. Unfortunately, because of tiebreakers, Phoenix wound up with the West's sixth playoff seed without homecourt advantage and drew a first-round matchup with the San Antonio Spurs. The Suns came out on the wrong side of one of the most exciting games in NBA playoff history as the Spurs made two improbable last-second three-pointers in Game 1 of the series, one to send the game into overtime, one to force-double overtime. Phoenix won Game 3 in decisive fashion but the Spurs went on to win the series, 4-1, and eliminate the Suns from the playoffs for the third time in the last four seasons.

Season Review 08-09

46-36

The Phoenix Suns missed the playoffs for the first time since 2003 despite winning 46 games, the second-most victories for a non-playoff team in the 25-year history of the NBA's 16-team playoff format. Phoenix had the league's 13th-best record in 2008-09.

An offseason coaching change brought in former Trail Blazers great Terry Porter, but inconsistency plagued the club's first half. Despite a Dec. 10 trade that resulted in the acquisition of scorer Jason Richardson, Jared Dudley and a 2010 second-round draft pick from Charlotte for Raja Bell, Boris Diaw and Sean Singletary, a Suns team with high expectations limped to the All-Star break losing 10 of 16 games. Porter was dismissed on Feb. 16 after a 28-23 first half and replaced by assistant Alvin Gentry, a member of the Suns' coaching staff since 2004.

An energized Suns team exploded out of the gates following the All-Star break, registering a 140-100 win over the L.A. Clippers, the largest margin of victory following a coaching change in NBA history. The scorching Suns tallied 140 or more points in each of their first three games under Gentry, the first such scoring streak in team history, and the first time the league had seen such prolific scoring since 1990-91. Just when it seemed like Phoenix was poised for a run through the Western Conference, leading scorer Amar'e Stoudemire underwent season-ending surgery to repair a detached retina in his right eye on Feb. 20, an injury that occurred in the team's second game following the break.

Despite the injury to Stoudemire and games missed by both Steve Nash and Leandro Barbosa due to injury, the Suns went 18-13 during Gentry's interim tenure. Phoenix won 12 of its final 17 games under Gentry, a stretch which included both the club's longest overall win streak (six games) and longest home win streak (nine games). A great deal of the team's success and the resulting fan excitement stemmed from its return to its high-scoring roots, and in 2008-09 Phoenix led the league in scoring for the fourth time in the last five seasons. The Suns removed the interim tag from Gentry's title following the season on May 9.

For the third time, the Suns and the city of Phoenix hosted the NBA All-Star Game. The weekend festivities took over US Airways Center from Feb. 13-15 along with the league's biggest stage and brightest stars, including Suns Stoudemire (voted a starter for the first time in his career) and Shaquille O'Neal, who was named the game's co-MVP with Kobe Bryant. For the season, Shaq averaged 17.8 points and led the league in field goal percentage for the NBA-record 10th time and earned All-NBA Third Team honors. O'Neal was dealt to the Cleveland Cavaliers in a three-player trade on June 25. Phoenix acquired Ben Wallace and Sasha Pavlovic, who each later agreed to buyouts.

Season Review 09-10

54-28

A 2009-10 season that began with tempered expectations and a slew of vocal doubters saw the up-start Phoenix Suns make believers out of fans and pundits alike, and come within two victories of an NBA Finals berth. The club made its third Western Conference Finals appearance in six seasons after a 54-win regular season despite being picked by many to miss the playoffs entirely.

Behind Alvin Gentry in his first full season as the club's head coach, Phoenix opened the season with a franchise-record tying and NBA-best 14-3 record, earning the first of two NBA Western Conference Coach of the Month honors for Gentry, who finished fifth in league Coach of the Year voting. Despite inconsistencies in December and January that saw the club struggle to a 14-18 mark, the quick start was a source of confidence for the Suns, who rediscovered their swagger and won 23 of 29 games after the All-Star break, best of any West team. That record included a 12-2 mark in the month of March when Gentry won his second monthly honor.

The Suns were once again led by All-NBA Second Team teammates Steve Nash and Amar'e Stoudemire, who were both voted All-Star starters. Nash posted the greatest statistical season for a point guard over the age of 35 in league history and led the NBA in assists for the fourth time in six seasons since re-joining the Suns. But it was not just the stars who led Phoenix. Suns fans were treated to a deeper and more defensive-minded club. Planet Orange witnessed the development of a consistently productive 10-man rotation and the coming-of-age of the team's 2008 draft class, as Robin Lopez and Goran Dragic each became key contributors. The Suns led the league in scoring for the fifth time in six seasons and shot a franchise-record 41.2 percent from three-point range, the second-highest mark in NBA history.

After dropping their playoff opener against the Trail Blazers, Phoenix went on to win eight of its next nine postseason contests, defeating Portland 4-2 in the opening round to set up a semifinal grudge match with the rival San Antonio Spurs. Though the doubters returned, not only did the Suns erase a decade of playoff heartbreaks against the Spurs, they did so with a sweep of San Antonio that included an 18-point comeback in Game 3 and a series-clinching Game 4 victory in the Alamo City.

That set up a clash of Pacific Division foes in the conference finals and the Suns and Lakers split the series' first four games. But, in Game 5, Ron Artest's improbable rebound and put-back of a Kobe Bryant airball as time expired won that pivotal contest for the Lakers and eventually the series, 4-2.

Season Review 10-11

A season of change throughout the organization in 2010-11 began with the hiring of a new basketball president, former sports attorney and agent Lon Babby, and the naming of former San Antonio Spurs and Cleveland Cavaliers executive Lance Blanks as the club's general manager. A whirlwind offseason brought the notable additions of Hedo Turkoglu, Hakim Warrick and Josh Childress, and saw the departure of Amar'e Stoudemire to the New York Knicks.

A slow start to the season that saw the team struggle to find consistency with its overhauled roster and stumble to a Dec. 17 record of 12-13, gave way to the new regime's first blockbuster trade the very next day when Phoenix acquired Vince Carter, Marcin Gortat, Mickael Pietrus, a 2011 first-round pick and cash considerations from the Orlando Magic in exchange for Jason Richardson, Hedo Turkoglu and Earl Clark. The Suns' brass then made a deadline-day deal in February that sent Goran Dragic to the Houston Rockets for Aaron Brooks, who the season before had been named the NBA's Most Improved Player.

In all, nine of the 14 players on the Suns' final 2010-11 roster were not with the team at the conclusion of 2009-10. Nineteen different Suns saw action in 2010-11, most since 2003-04. Overall, Phoenix used 17 different starting lineups, more than twice as many as the prior season.

The Suns' veteran pillars helped the club navigate a season of change and keep the team in contention for a playoff spot until the season's final month. Steve Nash turned in another stellar season, leading the league in assists for the fifth time in seven campaigns since returning to the Suns, and also leading the club in scoring. Grant Hill became only the seventh player in NBA history to average 13 points or more at the age of 38 or older, and also received votes for Defensive Player of the Year.

After signing a five-year deal in the offseason, Channing Frye averaged career highs in scoring and rebounding; Jared Dudley, who signed a contract extension five days into the season, also averaged career highs in both scoring and rebounding.

Acquired midseason, Gortat proved to be one of the best additions made by any team during 2010-11. The 27-year-old career backup had never averaged even 4.0 points for a season but averaged 13.0 points and 9.3 rebounds in 55 games with Phoenix, and set a Suns franchise record for double-doubles off the bench in a single season before earning a spot in the starting lineup in March.

Season Review 11-12

33-33

A season shortened by a 149-day lockout began Christmas Day with low outside expectations for the Phoenix Suns, but the resilient squad persevered and used a strong second half to keep itself in the playoff chase until the season's final days.

An abbreviated training camp and preseason contributed to a slow start for the Suns, who lost on an opening-night buzzer beater at home and then struggled to a 12-19 (.387) start and a 14-20 (.412) record at the All-Star break. A compact schedule that featured 66 games in 121 days and two back-to-back-to-back sets did not make things any easier. But, led by veterans Steve Nash and Grant Hill, and returning contributors Marcin Gortat, Jared Dudley and Channing Frye, the team never splintered, winning nine of its first 11 contests after the break and compiling a 19-13 (.594) post-All-Star record.

Phoenix got itself back into the thick of the playoff chase despite a March injury to Hill, thanks to offseason additions Shannon Brown, Sebastian Telfair and Michael Redd, each of whom were key contributors down the stretch. The Suns tracked down Houston, Minnesota and Golden State in the standings but were eliminated in a road loss to eventual eighth seed Utah in the season's penultimate game, ending Phoenix's bid to become the first NBA team since the 1996-97 Suns to earn a playoff berth after entering the All-Star break six or more games under .500.

The Suns finished .500 or better for the third time in four seasons under Alvin Gentry and for the seventh time in eight seasons of Robert Sarver's ownership. Nash earned his eighth career All-Star berth and his sixth as a Sun, tying Walter Davis for the most in franchise history. On Feb. 1, Nash passed Kevin Johnson to become the all-time franchise leader in assists. Gortat had a breakout year in his first full season in Phoenix, leading the club in scoring, rebounding and blocks, and joining All-Star starters Dwight Howard and Andrew Bynum as the only NBA players to average at least 15 points, 10 boards and 1.5 blocks in 2011-12. Markieff Morris, selected by the Suns with the 13th overall pick, had the best statistical campaign by a Suns rookie since Amar'e Stoudemire and was selected to participate in the Rising Stars Challenge at All-Star Weekend in Orlando.

The Suns organization gave its highest honor to John MacLeod, the winningest head coach in franchise history, inducting him into the Ring of Honor on April 18.

Season Review 12-13

25-57

The Phoenix Suns experienced an up-and-down season including a coaching change, with the club ultimately finishing with a 25-57 (.305) record. A highlight of the season illustrated the success of the franchise throughout its existence as the Suns won their 2000th game, reaching the milestone in the fourth fewest amount of games in NBA history.

A busy 2012 offseason saw the Suns sign free agents Goran Dragic, Michael Beasley, P.J. Tucker and make the winning amnesty bid on veteran Luis Scola. Phoenix also acquired 2012 first-round draft pick Kendall Marshall. A midseason trade with Houston added 2011 first-round pick Marcus Morris to the roster, joining his twin brother Markieff Morris.

The Suns opened the season 4-4 through eight games, but struggled to a 13-28 start which led to the team parting ways with head coach Alvin Gentry on Jan. 20. Lindsey Hunter replaced Gentry as interim head coach and remained at the helm through the end of the season. The Suns would finish with a 12-29 mark following the coaching change.

On Jan. 12 at Chicago, the Suns topped the Bulls 97-81 to notch the franchise's 2000th career victory. By reaching the 2000-win plateau in just 3599 games, Phoenix became the fourth fastest team in NBA history to reach 2000, with only Boston, the L.A. Lakers and Philadelphia doing so in fewer games.

Phoenix also made history on Feb. 22 as the Morris twins both played against the Celtics, joining the Suns' Dick and Tom Van Arsdale in 1976-77 as the second set of twins to team together in an NBA game. On March 8, the Morris brothers became the first twin teammates to both start in the game.

The 2012-13 season featured the breakthrough of Dragic as he led the Suns in points, assists and steals, and was one of just four players in the NBA to average at least 14.0 points, 7.0 assists and 1.50 steals. Tucker also emerged as a fan favorite due to his hard-nosed style of play, winning the 2012-13 Dan Majerle Hustle Award after returning to the NBA following five seasons playing internationally.

Season Review 13-14

48-34

Despite pundits forecasting the team to finish near the bottom of the league prior to the season, the Suns were the story of the NBA, finishing with a 48-34 (.585) record and staying in the midst of a furious chase for the Western Conference playoffs until the season's final days. Phoenix finished one game back of the No. 8 seed in the West and tied for the second-most victories without making the postseason in league history.

In former Suns' All-Star Jeff Hornacek's first season as an NBA head coach he led the team to the league's biggest turnaround in 2013-14, improving to 48 wins after winning 25 games in 2012-13. Seven of the Suns' eight leading scorers averaged career-highs in points as the team featured a wide-open attack that led the NBA in fast break points.

The Suns' attack was led by offseason acquisitions Eric Bledsoe, Gerald Green and Miles Plumlee as well as Goran Dragic, P.J. Tucker, and Marcus and Markieff Morris. Channing Frye returned and started all 82 games after missing the entire 2012-13 season with a dilated cardiomyopathy.

The emergence of Dragic was especially vital to the Suns' success as the Dragon won the NBA Most Improved Player Award and earned All-NBA Third Team honors after becoming just the fourth player in league history to average at least 20 points and five assists while shooting over 50 percent from the field and 40 percent from behind the arc, joining LeBron James, Larry Bird and his head coach, Hornacek. Green (fourth) and Markieff Morris (tenth) also enjoyed breakthrough seasons as both finished in the top ten of balloting for NBA Most Improved Player along with Dragic.

Hornacek, who orchestrated what tied for the third biggest season-to-season turnaround in Suns history, earned Western Conference Coach of the Month honors for December after leading the team to a 10-3 record and in doing so became the first person in NBA history to win both Coach of the Month and Player of the Month (December 1991) honors with the same team.

Following a number of midseason transactions that saw several changes in the team's rotation following the All-Star break, the Suns remained in the thick of the playoff race into the season's final month before ultimately finishing shy of .500 at 39-43 (.476) in Head Coach Jeff Hornacek's second season.

Phoenix made six trades during the season, notably adding Brandon Knight, who earned All-Star consideration with the Milwaukee Bucks prior to becoming a Sun, as well as Brandan Wright, who once again was among the league's best in field goal percentage and blocks per minute. Among the season's highlights were the continued improvement of Eric Bledsoe who averaged a team-high 17.0 points in addition to career-highs of 6.1 assists and 5.2 rebounds, and the emergence of Alex Len as one of the league's top shot blockers in his second season. Markieff Morris and Marcus Morris each had career seasons with Markieff averaging career-bests of 15.3 points and 6.2 rebounds while Marcus averaged career-highs of 10.4 points and 4.8 rebounds.

The Suns went 16-6 over a 22-game stretch that extended from mid-December to late-January to reach a season high of eight games over .500 at 28-20 on Jan. 30. Phoenix would then drop five of six games heading into the All-Star break before making three deals at the trade deadline, re-shaping their rotation. A four-game winning streak put the Suns at 38-33 on March 22, but ultimately injuries to Knight, who was limited to 11 games with Phoenix following his trade, and Len, who missed the season's final seven games, proved too much to overcome as the Suns faded after only being three games out of a playoff spot with 10 games remaining on their schedule.

Season Review 15-16

23-59

In a season that featured a coaching change, injuries to several key contributors and the emergence of Devin Booker as one of the league's best young players, the Suns showed improvement towards season's end before finishing with a 23-59 (.280) record.

The Suns opened the season 7-5, but following that start won only seven of their next 37 games to enter February with a 14-35 record. On Feb. 1 the Suns parted ways with Jeff Hornacek, naming Earl Watson interim head coach before he was retained as head coach following the season. After Watson took over, Phoenix averaged the second-most rebounds in the NBA and was one of the league's most improved defensive teams over the season's final month as they closed the season with wins in three of their final four games.

Contributing to the Suns' struggles, three of the team's leading scorers each missed significant time to injuries as Eric Bledsoe (20.4 ppg) missed the final 50 games, Brandon Knight (19.6 ppg) missed 30 games and T.J. Warren (11.6 ppg) missed the final 34 games.

Among the season's bright spots, Booker averaged 13.8 points and recorded a historic campaign by becoming the fourth-youngest player to reach 1,000 career points with only LeBron James, Kobe Bryant and Kevin Durant doing so at a younger age. On his way to earning NBA All-Rookie First Team honors, Booker averaged 18.5 points over the season's final 44 games after permanently entering the starting lineup, including six performances scoring 30-plus points. Alex Len continued his development, averaging a double-double (13.0 points, 10.3 rebounds) in 27 games following the All-Star break. Mirza Teletovic set an NBA record by making 179 three-pointers when coming off the bench.

On Oct. 30, the Suns organization gave its highest honor to one of the greatest players in team history, inducting two-time NBA MVP Steve Nash into the Ring of Honor.

Season Review 16-17

RECORD
24-58

Despite a 24-58 (.293) record, the 2016-17 Suns season featured several history-making moments with the team's exciting young core providing a number of highlights.

Most memorably, Devin Booker scored a franchise record 70 points at Boston on March 24 to become just the sixth player in NBA history to score at least 70 in a game. At 20 years, 145 days old at the time of his performance, Booker became the youngest player to ever score 70 (or 60) as his 51 points in the second half alone were the most by any NBA player since Kobe Bryant in 2006. Booker was outstanding throughout the season as his 22.1 points per game were the third-highest ever by a player in a season that ends while still 20 years old or younger.

The Suns also made history by becoming the only team in the last 20 years to make four game-winning buzzer-beaters in a season as Eric Bledsoe made one (November 2 vs. Portland), Booker made two (February 3 at Sacramento, March 11 at Dallas) and Tyler Ulis hit one (March 5 vs. Boston).

In January, the Suns became the first team to play two regular-season games in Mexico in one season, splitting two games with Dallas and San Antonio at Mexico City Arena on January 12 and 14. On March 23 at Brooklyn, the Suns utilized the youngest starting lineup in NBA history as Ulis, Booker, Derrick Jones Jr., Marquese Chriss and Alex Len combined for an average age of 21 years, 14 days.

Other highlights for the Suns include: Bledsoe averaging career-highs of 21.1 points and 6.3 assists; T.J. Warren posting a career-best 14.4 points per game; and Tyson Chandler leading the team with 11.5 rebounds per game, the most ever by a player in his 16th season or later. Chriss and Ulis became the first pair of Suns rookies since 1988 to each win Western Conference Rookie of the Month honors as Chriss won in January and Ulis earned the honor in April.

On March 3, the Suns organization gave its highest honor to the "Voice of the Suns" for nearly the length of the franchise's existence, inducting Al McCoy into the Ring of Honor.

1975-76 (Suns 42-40 Regular Season)

Beginning with the 1974-75 season, the league was divided into the four divisions and two conferences we know today. Five teams from each conference advanced to the playoffs. The winningest three teams received a bye in the first-round, the remaining two teams played in a best-of-five first-round series. The best-of-seven semifinals pitted the first-place team against the winner of the first-round series and the second and third-place teams against each other, with the winners advancing to the conference finals and the NBA Finals.

This procedure changed slightly prior to the start of the 1976-77 season when additional teams were added to the league. At that time, six teams advanced to the playoffs and each of the division winners received a bye to the semifinals. Again, the first-round of the playoffs was a best-of-five series and each of the three following series were best-of-seven.

1983-84 (Suns 41-41 Regular Season)

A new playoff format, similar to the one still in use today, was implemented. Eight teams from each conference make the playoffs, with the division winners having the top two seeds in each conference and subsequent seedings determined by record. The first-round series would be best-of-five until 2003.

EDUCATION

Suns Central

Our most ambitious project is our SunsCentral program at Central High School. In 2012, the Suns organization adopted Phoenix's Central High School with a mission to create an environment that would allow these students to succeed. Just over three years later, we are well on our way to accomplishing that goal as graduation success rates have increased from 69.9% in 2012-13 to 90% during the 2014-15 school year. Phoenix Suns Charities is privileged to be one of the many ways the Phoenix Suns have put our promise to serve our community into action.

APS Project Rebound

The Phoenix Suns recognize the importance of physical fitness for youth and strive to provide them with the right equipment to play. The Suns and APS have teamed up to build and improve basketball courts all over the state of Arizona. A dedication ceremony features player and alumni clinics for kids who will use the courts. Over the years, the Suns and APS have renovated 13 courts statewide.

Symbol of Freedom

Every season, the Phoenix Suns and Southwest Airlines team up to bring a group of seventh-grade students on a flyaway of a lifetime. Through the "Symbol of Freedom" Art & Essay Contest, Valley students must depict what a symbol of freedom means to them through artwork and an original essay. Ten students are selected to attend an all-expense paid flyaway to a destination that symbolizes our nation's freedom and see a Suns' road game.

We Love It Here

The "We Love It Here" reading and learning center improvement grant contest is a partnership between Southwest Airlines and the Phoenix Suns. This program provides a $5,000 grant to revamp an educational learning center in Phoenix. In the 2016-17 season, Eastlake Park Community Center in Metro Phoenix was the recipient of the award and received a brand new reading and learning center equipped with new books, furniture, television, computers and projector.

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury Youth Basketball Leagues

Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury Youth Basketball Leagues provide kids with the opportunity to learn what it takes to win both on and off the court. Kids of all skill levels can participate in leagues that run throughout the year and even have a chance to scrimmage in front of the home crowd at Talking Stick Resort Arena. Special visits by Suns and Mercury players, coaches and alumni provide added motivation, showing kids that a winning attitude goes a long way. Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury provides boys and girls ages 6-17 a chance to learn important life lessons, the value of a good education, good sportsmanship and the importance of giving back to the community. The league partners with YMCAs, Boys and Girls Clubs and various city parks and recreation departments throughout the state of Arizona.

Mobile Mini Community Assist Award

Each month the Phoenix Suns recognize a community advocate in the Valley, a Jr. Suns or Jr. Mercury participant and a Phoenix Suns player for their commitment to enriching the lives of others. The Phoenix Suns are striving to make a difference in the community and are proud to celebrate individuals for their similar efforts.

Community Appearances

Meeting a Phoenix Suns player can be a significant experience in the life of a child. Suns players, coaches and alumni make appearances year-round, allowing the Suns to support hundreds of community organizations in a unique way. Appearances at schools, hospitals, stores, basketball camps and community events help many other organizations raise funds and build community awareness for their cause.

The ever-entertaining Suns mascot, The Gorilla, makes friends throughout the state with charities, schools, hospitals and local businesses. Many times The Gorilla is joined by the Phoenix Suns entertainment team, including Suns Dancers, Suns Solar Squad, Sol Patrol and our interactive Suns vehicle.

Donations

Through the combined efforts of the Phoenix Suns and Phoenix Suns Charities, funding, and autographed items are provided to hundreds of location non-profit organizations and schools that assist the needs of children and their families in Arizona.

Our support for non-profits and schools extend beyond monetary contributions. Our Phoenix Suns players generously purchase blocks of tickets to many home games providing children a chance to experience a live Suns home game for the very first time. Through our Charity Challenge program, local nonprofits are awarded tickets throughout the year and are entered for a chance to win a $25,000 grant from Phoenix Suns Charities.

Volunteer Efforts

Since our inception in 1968, the Phoenix Suns is an organization deeply rooted in excelling both on and off the court. As a professional sports franchise, we recognize it is our responsibility to be a leader in serving Arizona's communities. As a community leader, the Suns continue to be a major contributor to the Boys and Girls Club, Special Olympics, Playworks Arizona and Helping Hands for Single Moms, along with various other non-profits. Additionally, our employees serve on numerous community boards and committees as well as participate in an organization-wide Phoenix Suns Month of Service brought to you by Hedley Orthopaedic Institute to volunteer over 500 hours in the community to tip-off each season.

Talking Stick Resort Arena

From its planning inception in 1988 and eventual opening in June of 1992, Talking Stick Resort Arena (formerly US Airways Center, as of October 2015) was the benchmark for other cities and other sports facilities.

Its design boasted innovations that had not been seen in arenas of its day including multi-story suite levels, attached premium parking facilities, and integrated team practice facility. Both public and private critics saw Talking Stick Resort Arena as a catalytic project capable of stimulating urban growth.

In its first full year of operation, the originally named America West Arena received every award a new venue of its kind was afforded, including Best New Concert Venue by Performance Magazine and Best NBA Facility by acclaim of those who know best, the players themselves.

Through the course of the '90s, new facilities around the country followed the example of Talking Stick Resort Arena and new projects sprung up in nearly all the major western state metropolitan areas: Denver, Portland, Seattle, Salt Lake City and in 1999, Los Angeles and Dallas with dramatic new STAPLES Center and American Airlines Center. Technology changed, entertainment options proliferated and the city's emerging new downtown continued to evolve in positive ways.

The Talking Stick Resort Arena completed a major $70 million expansion and improvement project in 2004. Gone is the block exterior, replaced with soaring glass walls. The outdoor ticket office is now enclosed inside the new 14,000 square foot Casino Arizona Pavilion, serving as a grand entrance highlighted by a 12 × 20 foot video wall. On the east side, the Coors Light Cold Zone is a flexible outdoor entertainment venue covered by a football field-length canopy featuring state-of-the-art sound and video projection systems, as well as the stylish Coors Light Cold Zone bar area and facilities that double as television studio facilities for Suns telecasts and a performance stage for music events.

Other improvements include new technology installed in the bowl including a 900-foot LED ribbon, a center-hung scoreboard with HDTV screens, a new sound system, a new Courtside Club and the Suns Gorilla Greenhouse, a 7,000 square foot family friendly active home to the Phoenix Suns Gorilla. At street level the Talking Stick Resort Arena now features a Carl's Jr., an expanded Team Shop and the Blue Moon Club.
